Ireland.—John Waugh, William Gilcrist, Thomas Waugh, James Lynch, James Pratt, Samuel Downing, James Johnson, Samuel M'Dowell, Robert Carson.

Q. 4. What Preachers have died during the last year?

A. 1. John Bissex, a young man of genuine piety, and unaffected modesty, and of talents which promised great usefulness in the Church of God. But Divine Providence, whose acts are often inscrutable, saw fit to remove him by a rapid decline, in about six months after his entrance on his itinerant labours. He died at Coleford, in the full assurance of faith.

2. Edward Linnell, son of the late Mr. William Linnell, formerly an Itinerant Preacher in our Connexion. He was a genuine disciple of his blessed Master; meek and lowly in heart; grave and steady in his deportment; zealously affected in the cause of God, and never inflexible, but when his duty as a Christian or a Minister required it. When Methodism began to revive in Wales, he was exceedingly useful as a Leader. He went to Denbigh once a week to meet a class, which was a journey of eight miles, and frequently returned the same night, over dreary mountains in cold and tempestuous weather. When his death was announced to this people, their affection for him was discovered by their tears in a way that language cannot describe. As a Local Preacher, he suffered neither weather nor the distance of his places to prevent him from fulfilling his engagements. And his whole conduct, when a Travelling Preacher, shewed that he had the good of souls at heart. His abilities, as a Preacher, were not of the most splendid kind, yet he was much respected, as well as truly useful, in the circuits in which he laboured. Some of his last words were, "I have plunged into the purple flood, and risen to the life of God. He has spoken the sanctifying word. I have glorious views of heaven. O what joy, what peace, what felicity! I could not have conceived it possible for mortals to know what I now experience." Thus he continued till the morning of June the 29th, when his happy spirit took its flight to everlasting glory. He had travelled nearly five years, and been a member of the Society from a child.

3. Peter Haslam.—He was early convinced of sin, and shortly after brought to an experimental knowledge of God in Christ. At the Conference in 1796, being then twenty-two years of age, he was admitted on trial as a Travelling Preacher; and in 1800, was received into full connexion with the approbation of all his brethren. He was a man of a strong mind, thirsting after divine knowledge. He was diligent in attending to his appointments; zealous in the cause of God; beloved in every circuit in which he laboured; and the Lord was pleased to crown his labours with considerable success. His death was rather sudden. He preached three times at Leeds-street chapel, in Liverpool, on Sunday, April the 24th, and at Gerard-street, on the following day; and on Thursday morning, May the 5th, he died, trusting in the Lord, having left a widow and four children, the eldest of whom was not six years of age. So greatly was he respected in Liverpool, that the concourse of people who attended his funeral was as large as the oldest person there remembers to have seen.

4. John Goodwin. He was brought to the knowledge of God when young, and not long after his conversion was called to publish the word of salvation. This he did, first as a Local Preacher in Cheshire, his native county, and afterwards as an Itinerant in various part of the Connexion, with acceptance and success. In Ireland, in Cornwall, and in most of our large circuits, he had his stations, and in every one of them some fruit of his labour appeared. His character was unblemished during the whole of his ministry, and his affection to his colleagues was generally acknowledged. He was strictly conscientious in all his actions, and truly devoted to God; continuing in the work of the ministry, till by a short affliction he was removed from earth in peace. A little before his death he said to a friend who visited him, "All things are going but God; but he is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever." He died at Bolton, on the 5th of May last, in the 40th year of his Itinerancy, and in the 69th year of his age.

9. William Fenwick. He was born in South Shields, in the county of Durham. In that town, and its vicinity, he preached as a Local Preacher for several years, with considerable approbation and success. He commenced his Itinerant labours in the year 1792; and they were continued without interruption until Tuesday, Dec. 29, 1807, when he finished his ministerial and mortal career. From the time he entered upon the sacred duties of his office, he was much devoted to God, and zealously interested in the salvation of men; nor were his labours in vain in the Lord. His manners were plain; his conversation was serious, and his whole behaviour, both as a Christian, and a Minister, was agreeable to the doctrine of God our Saviour. His health had been on the decline for some time before his death; and he had a full conviction that he should soon become an inhabitant of the world of spirits. But to him death was not terrible. He knew in whom he had believed. In his last moments his confidence was not obscured by a doubt. Surrounded by an afflicted family, this faithful servant of God, and of the church, was enabled, through the infinite mercy of the Redeemer, to finish his course, rejoicing with joy unspeakable, and full of glory !

6. Joseph Morrison, a young man of considerable talents, and of a very amiable disposition. After labouring in the ministry in Ireland for some time with success, he went as a Missionary to the West Indies. His last appointment was for the Island of St. Vincents, where he was well received. His illness was attributed, by his physician, to the too frequent use of the cold bath. However, such was the will of the Most High, in his inscrutable wisdom, that he took him to his heavenly kingdom, from the wilderness of this world, in the prime of life, and in the midst of his useful labours among the poor negroes. He died in great peace.

7. John Robinson, who, from the time of his conversion to God, was a steady, lively, and consistent Methodist. After being some time among us as a private member, he was called to preach the Gospel to the Negroes in the West Indies, and was appointed for the Island of St. Kitt's, where he was kindly received, and made useful to many. From thence he was removed to Barbadoes, where he arrived in the beginning of the year 1807, and laboured for a few months with great success. One night he was observed to be more than usually earnest in exhorting the people to prepare for death, observing that it was very near, and applying the idea in a very solemn manner to himself. After preaching, he retired to his room, and became very unwell. Medicine was applied, but in vain. Being seized with a violent fever, he lived a few days in excruciating pain, and was often delirious ; but at times he was sensible and very happy. A little before he died, he rose twice upon his knees, crying out, " I am more than conqueror, I am more than conqueror ! " In this glorious manner he finished his work on earth, and was admitted into the joy of his Lord, July the 5th, 1807.

8. Thomas Owens, who, after travelling some time in Ireland, spent twelve years in the West Indies, where his ministry was highly acceptable and successful. After his return to England he was severely afflicted with fits of a peculiar kind. We hope he died in peace.

9. Henry Evans. He was a useful and laborious Local Preacher for nearly twelve years. In 1803, he was sent as a Missionary to the West Indies. His first appointment was to St. Kitt's, where he was much esteemed, and very useful. From this favoured island he was removed to Tortola, where his labours were more abundant, and the great Head of the Church crowned them with more than ordinary success. He regarded neither fatigue nor danger, while engaged in the blessed work of saving souls, but his zeal and exertions were too great for the climate. He was seized with a violent fever, which resisted all the power of medicine, and terminated in death. During his last sickness, the welfare of the Society lay near his heart. He enjoyed peace with God, and had a blooming and blessed hope of immortality. Two days before he died he said he was very happy, and praised the Lord for his goodness to him. He afterwards lifted up his hand in token of victory, and then quietly fell asleep in Jesus.

10. Joseph Bradford, a man well known among us, and highly respected for his eminent uprightness and inflexible integrity. In the last year of his life he was greatly afflicted both with bodily and mental debility, which terminated in derangement. He died May the 28th, 1808.

11. In Ireland, William Wilson; who, notwithstanding some constitutional peculiarities, was a man of exalted piety, and deep acquaintance with the word of God. Seriousness and self-denial were the leading features of his character. The latter, some of his best friends apprehended, was carried rather to an extreme, and, probably, laid the foundation of his last illness. Though his public ministry was generally useful, his private conversation was much more so, being always spiritual, sensible, and to the use of edification. He travelled above nineteen years as a Preacher, and was always esteemed a faithful Minister of the Gospel. He died in great peace, assured of an eternal reward through our Lord Jesus Christ.

* The work in Bermuda has been but just renewed by Brother Marsden, and therefore but one class had been formed when the last accounts arrived.

† The declension of numbers in Newfoundland, we attribute to the long interval between the return of Brother Thoresby from that Island, and the commencement of Brother Remington's mission: but as there will soon be three Missionaries employed in Newfoundland, we hope we shall be able, in a short time, to present to our connexion more favourable accounts of the work in that Island.

Extract from the Journal.

Q. 15. Who are the Committee for guarding our privileges during the ensuing year?

A. The Rev. Dr. Coke, George Wolff, Esq. Christopher Sundius, Esq. William Marriott, Esq. Mr. Joseph Butterworth, Mr. Robert Middleton, Mr. Joseph Bulmer, Mr. Launcelot Haslope, Mr. William Jerram, Mr. Thomas Allan, all the Preachers appointed for London, Thomas Thompson, Esq. M. P. Thomas Holy, Esq. of Sheffield, Mr. John Ward, jun. of Durham, Mr. George Lomas, of Manchester, Mr. Joseph Dutton, of Liverpool, Mr. James Ewer, of Bristol, and Samuel Popplewell, Esq. of Harewood, near Leeds.

Q. 16. Has the Conference any further directions to give respecting Kingswood School.

A. Let the collection in support of that institution be made this year in the month of November, according to the order printed in 1807, and sent immediately to the Book-Steward.

N. B. It is the determination of the Conference,

1. That the School at Kingswood shall be continued.
2. That the sum paid by the parents towards the clothing of their boys at the School, shall no longer be demanded.
3. That when the number of boys at Kingswood shall amount to fifty, another School shall be provided in Yorkshire, as near Leeds as conveniently may be.
4. That a Committee shall be now appointed to look out for a suitable situation in Yorkshire, and to make their report to the next Conference. Messrs. Thomas Taylor, Joseph Taylor, Sutcliffe, Reynolds, Atmore, Gaulter, Stamp, and Suter, are requested to compose this Committee.
5. That Mr. Horner shall be continued at Kingswood as the classical master, and his salary raised to fifty guineas per annum. That the present Housekeeper shall be also continued; and that the President, in conjunction with the Committee of the School, shall be authorised to engage a Writing-master.

6. That if any boy shall discover an extraordinary genius, he shall be allowed to continue at the School longer than the usual period, provided that his parents shall pay annually such a sum towards the expense of his board and clothing as the Committee may deem proper.

Q. 17. What shall be done concerning Brighthouse chapel?

A. The suit already commenced for the recovery of that chapel, shall be continued under the direction of a Committee of the Conference, in conjunction with the Brighthouse Trustees. This Committee shall consist of the following persons: Dr. Coke, all the Preachers appointed for London, (any five of whom shall be competent to act for the rest,) Mr. Suter, Mr. Gaulter, Mr. Sutcliffe, Mr. Samuel Taylor, Mr. Stamp, Mr. John Ashworth, Mr. Richard Emmett, and Mr. Robert Emmett.

N. B. The money subscribed by the Preachers, for the purpose of supporting this suit, is to be lodged in the hands of the Book-Steward.

Q. 18. What directions are necessary respecting public worship?

A. 1. We request that all our chapels may be furnished with hassocks, or with kneeling-boards; so that every excuse may be taken away from those who persist in the irreverent and unscriptural custom of sitting while at prayer.

2. We desire that all our Preachers will strongly urge on their congregations, the propriety and importance of standing while they sing the praises of God.

3. The Conference judge it expedient to refuse, after this present year, their sanction or consent to the erection of any organ in our chapels.

4. Where organs have been already introduced, the Conference requires that they shall be so used as not to overpower or supersede, but only to assist our congregational singing: and that they shall be considered as under the control of the Superintendent, or of the officiating Preacher for the time being, whose right and duty it is to conduct every part of the public worship of God. Let no voluntaries be played during the time of divine service; and let all the rules respecting singing and instrumental music, which were made at the Sheffield Conference in 1805, and published in the Minutes of that year, be uniformly enforced.

Q. 19. What can we do for the spiritual benefit of the children of our people?

A. Let the good old custom of holding a children's meeting once a week, be revived in every town, and wherever else it shall be found practicable; and let all the Preachers turn their serious attention to this important subject. We also recommend, that the Instructions for Children, should be used in every Methodist family.

Q. 20. What can be done to prevent too great a number of Preachers from attending our Conferences?

A. The subject is recommended to the serious consideration of the ensuing District Meetings, who are to report their opinion to the next Conference.

Q. 21. As a recent regulation, which directed that all the young men to be received into full connexion, should attend the Conference in person for that purpose, or else remain on trial, has been found inconvenient, by causing, in some instances, the absence of all the Preachers from the Circuits, contrary to a previous rule; what method shall we adopt in future?

A. It is agreed that those Preachers, who have completed the usual period of probation, without any complaint being brought against them, and whom their District Committee, after a strict examination, shall unanimously recommend, shall be esteemed as virtually received into full connexion, without attending the Conference. But they may be publicly received at the District Meeting, if it shall be deemed expedient.

Q. 22. It is stated that various persons, some of them foreigners, have made collections in our chapels, without the sanction of the Conference? What can be done to prevent this in future?

A. We direct our Superintendants to hinder all such collections as far as possible; and we advise our people to withhold their subscriptions from all persons who have not applied for, and received the consent of, the Conference in a regular way.

N. B. On the subject of collections for chapels, the Conference refers to the consideration of the ensuing District Meetings, the following proposal of the London District, on which they are directed to report their opinion next year: viz.—“In order, to promote the erection of new chapels, where they may be wanted, to assist those chapels which are overburdened with debt, and to relieve the Preachers from the disagreeable necessity of going to collect money from Circuit to Circuit, while their own proper work is unavoidably neglected: we unanimously recommend, that a Fund for Chapels shall be formed in each District, by monthly or quarterly subscriptions, to be received by the Preachers in their respective Circuits. This Fund should be under the entire management of the District Committees, who should direct, from year to year, the sum to be given in each case, and appoint a Treasurer to hold the surplus, as well as a Secretary to keep the accounts; which accounts should be produced annually at the Conference.”

Q. 23. Should not all our chapels be properly settled on Trustees, so that they may always be preserved for the very same purposes for which they are built?

A. Certainly they should: and we direct that all our Superintendants shall take immediate steps to settle the chapels which are now built, if not already settled; and that the Preachers shall not occupy any chapel which may be built in future, until it is settled in a proper way.

N. B. The Conference advises, that a book be provided in every Circuit, and that an abstract of the several Trust Deeds of the chapels in that Circuit be registered in such book; so that the nature of the Trust, the names of the Trustees, and the places where the Deeds are lodged, may at any time be known by the Superintendant Preachers.

Q. 24. Can any further measure be adopted by us for the spread of religion?

A. We think much good might be done, under the blessing of God, by the formation among us of a Religious Tract Society, to be as extensive as our Connexion; and we desire that the Book-Committee in London will draw up the Plan of such a Society, and submit it to the consideration of their brethren.

Q. 25. Are any regulations necessary respecting Sunday-schools?

A. 1. Let all the Travelling Preachers, where Sunday-schools are established, be members of the committees of those schools which belong to us; and let the Superintendant preside in their meetings.

2. As many of the children as can possibly be accommodated with room, ought invariably to attend our public worship, at least once on every Lord's-day.

Q. 26. Has not the privilege of admission to our Love-feasts been too commonly and promiscuously granted?

A. In some places this has been the case; and we therefore direct that our old rule shall be uniformly enforced, which enacts, that no person, not willing to join our Society, shall be admitted to a love-feast more than once; nor then, without a note from a Travelling Preacher. We entreat both our Preachers and our Stewards to observe this direction; and let it be also understood, that any person who is proved to have lent a Society ticket to another, not in Society, for the purpose of deceiving the door-keepers, shall be suspended for three months.

Q. 27. Is any direction necessary respecting the allowances to be made to preachers for the education of their sons?

A. Those of our brethren who have sons that are not sent to Kingswood-School, though of the proper age, are authorised to receive, in future, the usual allowance for children from their Circuits, in addition to the allowance made in such cases from the Kingswood-School Fund.

Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of this Conference be returned to Mr. Robert Lomas, for his very laborious, faithful, and successful services in our Book-room, and that this Resolution be printed in our Minutes.

Resolved unanimously, That Mr. Lomas be requested to accept the office of General Auditor of all our accounts; and that he be authorised to procure such assistants in that work as he may judge necessary.

Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of this Conference be returned to Mr. George Story, for his long and faithful services in our Printing-office, and that this Resolution be printed in our Minutes.

Q. 28. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. At Manchester, on the last Monday in July, 1809.

N. B. The reserve list is left in the hands of the President at Bristol; who is fully authorised, after due inquiries, to call out any of the Preachers who are upon that list, in order to fill up, in the Circuits or Missions, any vacancies which may be caused by death, by desisting from travelling, or by the rejection of any of the Preachers now taken provisionally on trial, by their Quarterly Meetings, or by examining Superintendants, &c. : provided that the Preachers, so called out by the President, receive the approbation of their Quarterly Meetings, and are previously heard, examined, and approved by three Preachers who have travelled, at least, ten years.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES WOOD, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

ADDRESSES.

The ADDRESS from the IRISH to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren in the Lord,

AS you observe, we have studiously avoided the appearance of vain compliments, in our mutual Addresses: yet when we, on this side the water, consider the comparatively short time of our having laboured in the vineyard of the Lord, we sink in our own eyes at your feet ; but viewing you as sinners saved by grace, like ourselves, and as men who feel themselves less than the least of all saints, we shun every thing bordering on adulation, while, from our hearts, we use the language of high esteem, which we know is quite compatible with sincerity.

Our growing union in the Lord, is, indeed, a source of great joy to us all; because we are assured, that as long as the servants of God continue one in him, their way shall be clear, their arm shall be strong, and Zion, the beloved of the Lord, and joy of the whole earth, shall prosper. By this divine principle, which, at first, drew us together, and which hath made us intimately one in Christ, we desire to be governed at all times and in all places; and it is our earnest prayer to Almighty God, that it may wax stronger and stronger in you and in us, till all the enemies of the Lord are brought to bow down, and acknowledge the righteous sway of our heavenly King.

We bless our Great Master, that a portion of this Spirit, in no small degree, prevails in our Conference; for though we search every matter that comes before us to the bottom, that whatever is opposite to God, may be banished from among us; our union thereby has not been injured: this appears from the affecting manner in which reproof, when necessary is given, and the spirit of meekness in which it is received; but this, through mercy, is not often necessary, for which we cannot be sufficiently thankful.

On reviewing our labours during the past year, we see cause for humiliation and for joy.—For humiliation, that we have not been more hearty in the important service of so good a Master.—For joy, that he has deigned to make use of us, in any measure, to awaken and bring to the knowledge of the truth, our fellow sinners.

Our Missionaries are still much honoured of the Lord; and we trust that our mutual efforts in the cause of pure and undefiled religion, will be attended, more than ever, with the blessing of the Author and Finisher of our Faith.

With great pleasure, and with the utmost confidence, we renew our old request, for the return of the Rev. Dr. Coke, to preside among us the ensuing year; his presence is always desirable, as it greatly contributes to the harmony which subsists among us.

We are thankful that our loving and faithful Brother Averell, is so acceptable to you; and knowing the pure intention, by which he is governed at all times, we unanimously appoint him this year also, our Representative to the British Conference.

That the God of all grace and consolation may shower his blessings down upon you; and that your prosperity, in which we very much rejoice, may abound more and more, is the prayer,

Dear Fathers and Brethren,

Of your affectionate Fellow-labourers in our Lord's vineyard.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference.

WILLIAM FERGUSON, Secretary.

Dublin, July 9, 1808.

The ADDRESS from the BRITISH to the IRISH CONFERENCE.

Bristol, Aug. 1, 1808.

Very dear and greatly beloved Brethren,

AS "iron sharpeneth iron, so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." The happy effects of personal interviews among christians, and christian ministers, have been considered, from the first spreading of the gospel, as blessings greatly to be prized. Where this privilege is denied, as in our present situation, it is a pleasing substitute, that by letters and worthy Representatives, we are enabled to express our truly affectionate regards for each other.

Viewed through such a medium, we consider the keeping open the intercourse between you and us, as a point of real importance, calculated to be of great use to both parties. Prayer and thanksgiving are excited in our hearts, by the discovery of our wants, and of our blessings. Thus your national situation, in various respects, has, for several years, claimed our tenderest sympathy, and has never been forgotten by us in our solemn addresses to the throne of grace. Yet have we greatly rejoiced on your behalf, having had such blessed proofs of the particular Providence of God, that has so often appeared in the marvellous deliverances which you have experienced. This we consider, next to the conversion of sinners, as a special mark of your being a highly favoured part of God's peculiar people.

With this view of you, dear Brethren, we feel an unspeakable pleasure in the increasing evidence of our spiritual union with you. This is a union unknown to the world, and which, if we hold fast our profession, will be lasting.

We share in your joy on the success of your Missionaries, and earnestly entreat our most adorable God and Saviour, that their success may increase more and more, till sin shall be all destroyed, and "holiness to the Lord," be written on every inhabitant of the earth!

Among the very many causes for which we have to be thankful, we consider it not as one of the least, that while infidel principles, and a cold indifference to christianity, are manifestly gaining ground, we observe an extraordinary attention has been paid by our Preachers in general to the internal evidence of our holy religion, preaching up the direct witness of the Spirit, as essentially necessary to the happiness and safety of every christian. With our usual and undissembled love, we cordially embrace your Representative, the Rev. Mr. Averell, as a brother whose praise is in all our churches, and whom, as we have formerly expressed ourselves, we always rejoice to see in our Conference.

We most cheerfully comply with your request for our highly esteemed friend, the Rev. Dr. Coke, to be your President, should the Lord spare you and him till another Conference.

That the God of all grace may prosper you in your holy calling, and keep you to the end, is the earnest prayer of,

Very dear and beloved Brethren,

Your truly affectionate Brethren.

Signed in behalf of the Conference,

JAMES WOOD, President.

Q. 4. What Preachers have died during the last year?

A. 1. Thomas Stanton, Sept. 1, 1808, in the fifteenth year of his itinerant labours. He enjoyed very few advantages when he entered on the work of the ministry; but he gave himself wholly to it, and his profiting appeared unto all. He cordially believed those doctrines generally received among us, and taught them with zeal, acceptance, and success. He sincerely loved our discipline, and conscientiously enforced it. As a child of God, partaking of that wisdom which is from above, he duly estimated the blessing of peace, and uniformly pursuing it, under the direction of piety, he found, in every circuit, that the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for them that make peace. A fine natural disposition, improved by divine grace, rendered him truly exemplary in every relation. He was a most affectionate husband, a discreetly indulgent parent, and a friend in whom the utmost confidence might be reposed with equal pleasure and safety. Just after the last Conference, when about to enter on a new circuit, with a reputation unblemished, with Christian principles unshaken, amidst prospects of growing usefulness, and supported by the consolations of God, he was honoured with an appointment to serve his divine Master in that world of perfect benevolence and purity, for which a gracious influence had so eminently prepared him.

2. Joseph Thompson, in the 77th year of his age. He travelled upwards of thirty years with an unblemished character, and general approbation. He was a clear, weighty, and practical Preacher. His pulpit discourses were faithful explanations of the Holy Word, and appeals to the consciences of his hearers. He was strictly conscientious in his intercourse both with God and man; and yet he depended solely on the Redeemer's merits for eternal salvation. Some of his last words were, "I am nothing, but Christ is all—all is in him, and from him, to whom be glory for ever." He died, where he had lived, fifteen of the last years of an uniform life, at Barnard Castle, Oct. 15, 1808, after enduring a weight of suffering, which he bore with entire resignation to the divine will. His affliction was a dropsy of the breast.

3. John Fisher. He was a man of genuine piety, of a serious and grave mind, yet cheerful and affable. He had a good natural understanding, considerably improved by diligent reading, close thinking, and fervent prayer. He was a useful preacher of the Gospel, a lover of our doctrines and discipline, a sincere friend, and a most agreeable fellow-labourer. After various conflicts with the powers of darkness in his last illness, which was a consumption, with smiles of holy triumph over the king of terrors, he fell asleep in Jesus, Jan. 16, 1809, in the 7th year of his Itinerancy, the 12th of his Christian pilgrimage, and the 33d of his age.

4. James Denton, a young man of great application to study, considerable talents, and genuine piety. His last illness was short, but his end was peace. He was called to his reward in February last, after having laboured with much acceptance for upwards of two years.

5. John Ashall, who had been a travelling Preacher fourteen years. For several years he laboured with much acceptance in various parts of the kingdom, and we believe he had fruit of his labours. He died at Stockport, in March, 1809.

6. John Foster, sen. He was early in life brought to the saving knowledge of God, through Jesus Christ. The time he laboured in the work of the ministry was short. By sleeping in a damp bed he lost his health, and lived out his few remaining years in great bodily affliction, but with an unshaken confidence in God. When the cold hand of death was upon him, he had no doubt of his interest in the Lord Jesus Christ. He departed this life in the 38th year of his age.

7. William Vipond, a man of a most excellent spirit, strong sense, sound judgment, extensive information, and deep piety. His ministerial abilities were great, his manner devout, his language pure, correct, and impressive. He not only spoke the words which became sound doctrine, but he put forth all his strength, both of body and soul in the work. In every circuit where he laboured his preaching was highly prized by the wise and judicious, and remarkably useful to all who possessed true religion, or were seriously inquiring after it. For several months previous to his death he suffered much, but he suffered with that fortitude which becomes a man, and that calm resignation which becomes a Christian. At length worn out with labour and afflictions, he died as he lived, with unshaken confidence in God, in the 33d year of his age, and the 11th of his itinerancy.

8. Thomas Longley. He was born in the parish of Dewsbury, Yorkshire, in the year 1743. He was deeply convinced of sin at an early period in life, and brought to an experimental knowledge of God in Christ, in a very clear and satisfactory manner. Several years he laboured with acceptance as a Local Preacher. At the Bristol Conference in 1780, he was admitted on trial as a Travelling Preacher. Twenty-six years he laboured in our connexion, with general approbation and success. His abilities as a Preacher proved him to be a man of God. He was clear and sound in all the Methodist doctrines, and sincerely loved and enforced our discipline. The manifold temptations he was exercised with, he bore with the patience and resignation of a Christian. He was nearly three years a supernumerary, and laboured to the utmost of his strength. He continued to enjoy the life of God in his soul, till on Friday morning, March 17, 1809, he was struck with an apoplectic fit, and fell asleep in Jesus, in the 66th year of his age.

9. John Hearnshaw, on Saturday, the 8th of April, the day on which he completed the 28th year of his age. For four years he travelled with very great credit to himself and the body to which he was united; at the expiration of this time, his health failed through excessive labour, and the four last years of his life were partly spent in fruitless endeavours to regain it. His experience was clear and deep, and his walk with God close and habitual. During a long and painful affliction, he was a witness to the truth and excellence of the religion which he had recommended to others. His sufferings were extreme, but his support was adequate, and no expression of discontent at any time escaped him. His ministerial qualifications were not of an ordinary kind; to a strong and discriminating understanding, were added a sincere love of the truth, an ardent zeal to promote its influence, an undaunted courage in its cause, and an eloquence the most impressive, which charmed whilst it deeply affected his hearers; hence his labours were highly acceptable and useful wherever he was stationed; and the most judicious and best informed of his friends are of opinion, that a youth of greater promise has seldom been snatched from the hopes of the Church.

10. In Ireland, William Harrison, a man of very acceptable abilities as a Preacher: a sound judgment, integrity and zeal for the cause of God, were distinguishing traits in his character. His ministry was considerably blessed to the conversion of souls, particularly towards the close of his life. After he had travelled near seven years, he was seized with a fever of which he died, departing this life happy in God.

Q. 5. Are there any objections to any of our Preachers?

A. They were examined one by one.

Q. 6. Who have desisted from travelling?

Q. 13. Who are the Committee for guarding our privileges during the ensuing year?

A. The Rev. Dr. Coke, George Wolff, Esq. Christopher Sundius, Esq. William Marriott, Esq. Mr. Joseph Butterworth, Mr. Robert Middleton, Mr. Joseph Bulmer, Mr. Launcelot Haslope, Mr. William Jerram, Mr. Thomas Allan, all the Preachers appointed for London, Thomas Thompson, Esq. M. P. Thomas Holy, Esq. of Sheffield, Mr. John Ward, jun. of Durham, Mr. George Lomas, of Manchester, Mr. Joseph Dutton, of Liverpool, Mr. James Ewer, of Bristol, and Samuel Popplewell, Esq. of Harewood, near Leeds.

N. B. It is particularly requested, that all letters addressed to this Committee, may be sent post-paid.

Q. 14. What measures can be adopted to render the income of our Connexion more adequate to its large and increasing expenditure, and to prevent the future accumulation of debt?

A. 1. Let no larger sum than thirty pounds be ever allowed for furniture to any one house.

2. Let the old rule be revived and enforced, which directs, that in every quarterly meeting the salaries of the Preachers' wives, stationed on the Circuit, shall be first paid, before any other demands are discharged.

3. After the yearly collection has been made in the classes as usual, let the object and importance of that collection be briefly explained by the Preachers to the principal congregations: that such of our hearers, not in Society with us, as wish to be fellow-helpers to the truth, may have an opportunity of assisting us, by sending their donations to the Superintendent.

4. The Chairman of every District is directed to make particular inquiries at each District Meeting, into the financial state of all the Circuits in his District, and particularly into the average amount of their weekly and quarterly contributions; that he may be able, if called upon, to report the same to the Conference. Any Chairman who shall be found to have neglected this annual examination, shall incur the censure of the Conference, which sentence shall be officially pronounced on him by the President.

5. Before the deficiencies brought from any Circuit are paid at the District Meeting, inquiry shall be made, whether such Circuit has complied with our rules respecting contributions, by raising, on the average, one penny per week, and one shilling per quarter, for each member. If it appear that the rules have not been complied with, the payment of the deficiencies of that Circuit shall be suspended, and the case reported to the Conference for their decision.

Q. 15. It has been suggested, that various advantages would arise from stationing the Preachers' children on particular Circuits, according to a just and fair proportion, how may this object be best accomplished?

A. It is agreed, that the District meetings shall make inquiry into the number in Society, and circumstances of the respective Circuits in their Districts; and shall draw up a plan, to be presented to the next Conference, stating how many children ought in equity to be provided for by each Circuit. The reports of the Districts shall be examined by the Conference, and from these materials, a general plan for stationing the children shall be drawn.

Q. 16. What is the proper method of accomplishing such new arrangements or partial alterations of Circuits, as may be judged necessary for the general good?

A. It has already been agreed, "that no Circuit shall be divided, till such division has been approved by their respective quarterly meetings." But the boundaries of existing Circuits may be regulated, and partial alterations made, without dividing them, or making any new Circuit; and such arrangements the District meetings have authority to make; subject, however, to the decision of the Conference, if there be any appeal against them.

Q. 17. What is the decision of the Brethren concerning the attendance of Preachers at the Conference?

A. The following shall be printed as the revised rules of the Connexion on this subject. The District-Committees respectively shall have the right of fixing upon the Preachers who are to attend the Conference; subject, however, to the following limitations: viz.

1. The expenses of going to and from the Conference shall be defrayed by the Circuits, or by the Preachers themselves.

2. Let not all the Preachers from any Circuit ever come to the Conference, except from within such a distance of the place where it is held, as will admit of their supplying their places on the Lord's Days; or except, in very special cases, the District Meeting shall unanimously decide that all the Brethren in any Circuit ought to attend.

3. Let those who have leave to attend, set out as late, and return as soon as possible.

4. The Preachers on trial shall not attend the Conference, unless sent for, or unless stationed within such a distance of the place where it is held, as will admit of supplying their places on the Lord's Day.

5. Nothing in these rules, shall be so construed as to prevent those Preachers from attending the Conference, against whom there lies any accusation or complaint.

Q. 18. What is the opinion of the Conference concerning the marriage of daughters without the consent of parents?

A. We agree to confirm and re-publish the Minute formerly printed on this subject by Mr. Wesley; and resolve, that if any Preacher violate this rule in future, he shall, on proof of such violation, be excluded from the Connexion. The Minute referred to is as follows:—"Q. Ought any woman to marry without the consent of her parents? A. In general she ought not. Yet there may be an exception. For if, (1) a woman be under the necessity of marrying; if, (2) her parents absolutely refuse to let her marry any Christian; then she may, nay ought, to marry without their consent. Yet even then, a Methodist Preacher ought not to marry her."

Q. 19. It is said that improper persons have applied for licenses to preach: how may this be best prevented?

A. Any person who applies for a license, without the previous knowledge and consent of the Superintendant, and his colleagues, and of the Local Preachers, or quarterly meeting, of the Circuit in which he resides, shall not be suffered to preach amongst us.

Q. 20. What further measures can the Conference adopt, in order to promote the spiritual benefit of the families of our people?

A. We most earnestly recommend to all Methodist parents, and heads of families, regular and serious attention to the duty of catechizing, and otherwise instructing, by free and affectionate conversations on the subject of religion, their children and servants. And we advise that in every family some convenient season should be statedly and sacredly set apart, on every Lord's Day, in the intervals of public worship, for these most important purposes; and that, according to the directions in our Minutes of last year, Mr. Wesley's Instructions for Children should be used in every Methodist house.

Q. 21. Shall any Preacher be stationed more than two years successively in the same Circuit?

A. No Preacher shall stay more than two years successively in the same Circuit, unless in some very rare and special cases, a majority of the Brethren assembled in Conference shall, by Ballot, determine that a third year ought to be allowed.

Q. 22. What can be done to form a List of Reserve from which vacancies that may occur in the Circuits, by death or otherwise, may be supplied?

A. If the Superintendants shall find in their respective Circuits any suitable persons, who are approved by the quarterly meetings, and who can be recommended according to rule, after being duly examined and heard by three Preachers who have each travelled ten years; they are directed to send the names and residences of such persons immediately to the President at Wakefield (paying postage of their Letters) with whom the List of Reserve is to be, as usual, deposited.

Q. 23. Are any directions necessary for the better management of our Home-Missions?

A. 1. Let all the Home-Missionaries be placed under regular Superintendants.

2. Let it be well understood, that they are subject to all our rules, and to the authority of the District meetings.

3. The accounts of the Home-Missions shall be annually presented for examination and approbation, not only to the Missionary Committee in London; but, also, to the respective District-meetings.

Q. 24. Can any thing be done to render our public worship more useful?

A. The Conference strongly enforce on all the Preachers the duty of attending to the rules already in existence, which require, that in every place where we have Public Service on the Lord's Day, in what are called canonical hours, the sacred Scriptures shall be regularly read.

Q. 25. Has our rule, which directs that notes of recommendation shall be given by the Preachers to persons who remove from one Circuit to another, been sufficiently attended to?

A. We fear not; and our Brethren are requested to observe it strictly in future. Printed notes, ready to be filled up, may be had by the Superintendants on application to the Book-Steward.

Q. 26. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. In London, on the last Monday in July, 1810.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Conference,

THOMAS TAYLOR, President.

JOSEPH BENSON, Secretary.

ADDRESSES.

The ADDRESS from the IRISH to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

GRACE, mercy, and peace, be unto you, from God our Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ: Amen!

We joyfully embrace this opportunity of acknowledging the receipt of your affectionate Address; and to assure you, that the tender regard you express for us, very much increases our esteem and love for you.

The joy you feel at the success of our Missionaries, greatly encourages us to persevere in this very arduous undertaking; and we have the pleasure of informing you, that three additional Missionaries have engaged in the blessed work this year. Our beloved Brethren, who have retired from it, were some of our most useful men, whose health declining under the fatigues thereof, were reduced to the necessity of returning to their regular plan. To your kind exertions, and the generosity of the good people of England, (under God,) thousands of souls in this country are indebted for the light of the Gospel. May God reward you all a thousand fold !

The witness of the Spirit of God with our spirits that we are his children, is a doctrine we love, and on which we constantly insist, because we know, that without it there can be no love to God, nor any real happiness in the mind; but where the Spirit of God is, there God dwells, and there is true essential liberty.

The Lord hath been graciously pleased to be with us through the year, blessing our labours with abundant increase; and also during the whole of our Conference, enabling us to speak and act from the pure principle of love, even that love which winks not at moral evil, which gently reproves, and scripturally corrects, while it enables us to enter into the sufferings and sorrows of each other, and to bear each other's burdens.

We thank you for sending, with such readiness of mind, our old, much-beloved, and worthy friend, the Rev. Dr. Coke, as our President year after year; and, with one accord, we earnestly request that you will send him to preside among us the ensuing year.

We unanimously appoint our dear Brother Averell our representative, and are happy that we have a man of such integrity, whose piety and zeal have secured him so high a place in your esteem and approbation.

That the Great Head of the Church may ever have you in his holy keeping—that he may continually be your mouth and wisdom, and crown all your labours with still more abundant success, is the prayer, Fathers and Brethren, of

Your affectionate Brethren in the Lord,

Signed in behalf of the Conference.

CHARLES MAYNE, Secretary.

Dublin, July 15, 1809.

AN ADDRESS from the BRITISH to the IRISH CONFERENCE:

Dearly beloved Brethren in the Lord,

GRACE and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

Your affectionate Address gives to us undissembled pleasure, and is cordially accepted by us as a pledge of your continued and increasing love.

We give thanks to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who still succeeds your labours in his vineyard; having no greater joy than in the destruction of the kingdom of darkness, sin, and wretchedness, and the enlargement of that which is light, and holiness, and peace, by the preaching of the glad tidings of salvation, and the effusion of the Holy Ghost.

Persuaded that you also are like minded with us, we call upon you to rejoice with us in the diffusion of the word and spirit of the Gospel in these parts of the British empire. Our feeble labours have been owned and blessed of God, in a degree that amply proves the faithfulness of him, who has said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

In the course of the past year, numbers of such as are saved have been added to our Societies; and many among our people are growing up in all things in Him who is our living head, while some who have fought the good fight, finished their course, and kept the faith, are triumphantly gone to receive the promised reward.

Having for so long a time proved the blessed effects of those peculiar doctrines, which are the prominent features of Christianity, and of that form of discipline which the Founder of Methodism was led to adopt by the Revelation and Providence of God, we feel more and more the importance of fully preaching the former, and affectionately enforcing the latter. And we exhort you, dear Brethren, still to walk by the same rule, and to mind the same thing.

The Rev. Adam Averell, whom you, as it appears, appointed to be your representative, has been, by some means, hindered from attending our Conference. Had not this been the case, we should have received him with that cordiality which, in his absence, we have shewn to his substitute, Mr. Samuel Wood, which, we trust, we shall always manifest towards any member of your body, to whom, in future, you shall give a similar commission.

Your request that the Rev. Dr. Coke may be appointed to preside in your next Conference, we cheerfully grant; and earnestly pray, that our Lord may still be in the midst of you.

We commend you to God, and to the word of his grace. Go on in the name and in the strength of Jesus. Watch in all things, endure affliction, do the work of Evangelists, make full proof of your ministry; and while you help us by your prayers, provoke also by your example,

Dearly beloved Brethren,

Yours in the Lord,

Signed in behalf of the Conference,

THOMAS TAYLOR, President.
JOSEPH BENSON, Secretary.

Manchester, Aug. 14, 1809.

P. S. If Dr. Coke judge it improbable that he can be at the next London Conference, in case he attend the next Irish Conference, he may depute the Rev. Adam Averell to preside among you as his substitute.

AN ADDRESS from the GENERAL CONFERENCE in AMERICA to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Baltimore, May 25, 1808.

Very dear Brethren and Fathers in Christ,

YOUR very affectionate Address to the Methodists' General Conference in America, has been read in our Conference, and afforded us great consolation. Feeling, with you, that our doctrine and manner of spreading the Gospel are the same, that we are united under one glorious Head, suffering in the same cause, and travelling to the same world of rest; we cannot but rejoice in your prosperity. Yes, Brethren, we rejoice to hear that the great Head of the Church has owned your labours, and given hundreds and thousands of precious souls to your labours and prayers. But, above all, we feel constrained to return thanks to the Father of Lights for presiding over your Conference and enabling you to draw to a close in harmony and love, and again to go into the hedges and highways, the towns and cities, and lift up your united voice, for the recovery of a lost and sinking world. O, Brethren! if God so wonderfully owned and blest the labours of the few, that first engaged in spreading the Gospel on the itinerant plan, in your highly-favoured land, so that "a little one has become a thousand:" what may we not expect from the labours of hundreds and thousands, provided they continue equally pure in doctrine, holy in life, and zealous for the glory of the Redeemer's kingdom!

We also, in this highly-favoured country, have cause of increasing gratitude and love to our common Lord, for his boundless love towards us. Although we have had a vast extent of country to travel over, in many parts stupendous chains of rocky mountains to climb, and uncultivated regions to explore; yet hitherto we have been kept one, and our labours have been crowned with success beyond our most sanguine expectations.—Not only in our towns and populous cities, and the country adjacent to the Atlantic, we have seen the pleasure of the Lord prosper in our hand, but also to the westward, and beyond the river Ohio, to the Mississippi and the Missouri, we have seen the [fruit of the] travel of the Redeemer's soul coming home to God. In those places where, but a few years ago, the wild beast of the forest prowled after his prey, and the tawny savage lurked in wait to murder the innocent, now houses are raised for the worship of God, precious souls have been converted by hundreds and thousands, and the songs of Zion are heard. Truly the wilderness and the solitary place have become glad, and the desert blossoms as the rose. This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes!

Our numbers are still increasing. We added more than seven thousand Members to our Societies the last year. There are now upwards of one hundred and fifty thousand Members within the bounds of our charge. The prospects are still opening and pleasing. The fields are white unto the harvest. Our Missionaries in the interior, and upon the frontier, have been successful. But we wish to rejoice with trembling. All the honour and praise be ascribed to God for ever.

Your request for the continuance of our beloved Brother, Dr. Coke among you, has been taken into the most serious and solemn deliberation in our Conference: and in compliance with your request, a vote has past, that he may continue with you, until he may be called to us by all the annual Conferences respectively, or the General Conference. We are, however, not insensible of his value, nor ungrateful for his past labours of love. And we do sincerely pray, that the everlasting God may still be with him, and make him a blessing to hundreds and thousands of immortal souls.

Our venerable Father, Mr. Asbury is still spared to us; and notwithstanding he carries the weight of threescore and three years, he has been enabled regularly to visit all the annual Conferences, and to preside in our General Conference. We esteem this a peculiar blessing.

As the pious Whatcoat is taken from us to his eternal reward, we have elected and set apart our beloved Brother, William M'Kendree, who has been well tried, and found faithful in the work of the ministry near twenty years, to fill his place as joint superintendant with Mr. Asbury. And we hope that the mantle of Elijah will rest upon Elisha. Our Conference has been large, and business of the greatest importance has come before us; but, through the infinite goodness of God, we have been preserved in union, and are now drawing toward a close in harmony and love.

Respecting our union, Brethren, we can say to you, we know no separation save the Atlantic. And we wish, so far as circumstances will permit, ever to cultivate the most cordial affection.

And now, dear Brethren and Fathers, praying that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may be your guide and support in life and death, and that we may all meet in our Father's house above,

We remain yours in unceasing love;

Signed by order and in behalf of the Conference:

By the Committee, { EZEK. COOPER.

P. S. Our Brother, Samuel Coate, has returned from England under a deep impression of gratitude for the kindness he has experienced among you. Upon due investigation, we are satisfied concerning the purity of his motives and integrity of his conduct in his late visit to make collections for the Montreal church; and we join him in thanks for the many marks of favour and love he has received from you.

N. B. It will be seen from the foregoing statement that the debt of the Connexion now amounts to the sum of Three Thousand and Nineteen Pounds One Shilling and Six-pence. As the money which has been borrowed in order to supply the present large deficiency, with the Interest upon it, will require more than A.L. the profits that can be expected from the Book Room in the ensuing year; it has been judged absolutely necessary to agree that an Extraordinary Collection shall be made in all the Circuits, in October, 1810, and that on this account there shall be no Collections for Chapels allowed that year.

Q. 4. What Preachers have died during the last year?

A. 1. William M'Allum. His mind was happily enlightened and divinely influenced by the glorious Gospel and Spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ; under which gracious influence he felt and evinced great love and compassion to the souls of men, and having received a commission from the God of heaven, he faithfully and zealously preached the unsearchable riches of Christ.—The Lord was pleased to smile upon his attempts, in the conviction and conversion of sinners. He travelled about twelve years, in the last of which his itinerant labours were interrupted by afflictions; and he was sorely assailed by temptations; but in the nearer approaches of death, and in death itself, the grace of God was still more eminently displayed; and he gloriously and finally overcame, through the blood of the Lamb.

2. Richard Arter, aged 24 years. Early in life he became acquainted with God, after which he was exemplary in his temper, and conducted himself as a Christian. The last year he entered upon the work of a travelling preacher: but in three months, sunk under his labours, and retired to die. His latter end was peaceful and triumphant.

3. Thomas Warwick—A man of solid piety, respectable talents, and great self-possession and intrepidity; a faithful friend, and an agreeable and instructive companion. He was awakened under the preaching of the late Mr. Joseph Guildford, in the year 1765, and gave himself up entirely to the work of the ministry in 1778. His labours were always acceptable to the people to whom he ministered, and often very successful; particularly in the Burslem Circuit, where he was the principal instrument of a very blessed revival of religion. In 1799, he was obliged to desist from travelling, in consequence of great bodily infirmity. For the two last years of his life, he was almost entirely confined to his bed; but his mind was always tranquil and happy, and he appeared to feel the same concern for the prosperity of religion, as when actively engaged in promoting it. In his last hours he was quite sensible, and a very short time before his departure, lifting up his hands, he said, “I am going to glory.”

4. William Cox, whose life and ministry displayed the attractive charms of genuine christianity. From a principle of purest benevolence, he pleased others for their good; and promoted the eternal interests of his various connexions, by associating most amiable manners with diligent exertion. As a preacher, he studied, with happy success, to shew himself approved unto God; a workman that needed not to be ashamed. Intent on winning souls, he conveyed correct ideas in acceptable words, and exhibited evangelical truth, adorned with the beauties of holiness. His doctrine distilled as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, as the showers upon the grass. He laboured as an Itinerant Preacher with great approbation for seventeen years, when he was constrained to relinquish his stated work, by severe indisposition and debility. His militant conflicts were terminated by a triumphant exit at Swansea, Oct. 15, 1809. Almost his last words were, “My hope is a hope of ages—a hope of immortality—a hope of eternal life.”

5. Thomas Biggins was early in life brought to the saving knowledge of God, through faith in Jesus Christ. He was truly pious, and sincerely devoted to God and his service. This studious and faithful young man laboured as an Itinerant Preacher for four years. Under the first sermon he preached, two persons were justified, and brought to possess the direct witness of the Spirit. His labours in those circuits where he travelled, were owned 'of God, and blessed to the people. He afforded great hopes that he would become a very useful minister in the Church of Christ; but by sleeping in a damp bed, he laid the foundation of his last sickness and death. For some months he endured great affliction, but bore it with great patience, having a strong confidence in God, and a hope full of immortality. He died in the same house where he drew his first breath, and now rests from his labours in paradise.

6. John Leech. After labouring several years as a Local Preacher, this valuable man commenced, in the year 1773, his itinerant ministry, which he exercised with fidelity and success. To a zeal which no difficulties could extinguish, he added a simplicity of manners, and a rectitude of conduct, which would have reflected no disgrace on the Christian Church in its purest ages. As a preacher, he was plain and perspicuous, dwelling much on the essential doctrines of the gospel. Having travelled in several of the most arduous circuits in Great Britain and Ireland, and nearly exhausted his strength in a work which he preferred to every other, he retired to Rochdale in 1803, where he spent the remnant of a laborious life in visiting the sick, and in preaching occasionally, as his strength would permit; and finished his course in joyful assurance of a crown of righteousness, Jan. 12, 1810, in the 74th year of his age.

7. James Parkinson, a young man of eminent piety and respectable talents. His conduct was consistent and uniform, and his whole deportment such as became a minister of the gospel of Christ. He was universally beloved by the people among whom he laboured, and his ministry was made a blessing to many. His experience was sound and clear, and, during his last illness, his soul was remarkably happy: he exclaimed, "I am going to my Saviour—I see the heavens open," and immediately entered into rest. He died at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, February 10, in the 27th year of his age, and the third of his itinerancy.

8. William Sanderson, who experienced the saving grace of God in his soul at an early period of his life, and retained his peace and happiness to the end. He saw christian holiness to be his privilege, pressed after it, and obtained it. He was faithful and resolute in the discharge of what he conceived to be his duty. He was naturally cheerful and affable, and his conversation spiritual and edifying. He was a useful, experimental, and practical preacher of the gospel, and warmly inculcated the necessity of holiness of heart. He laboured in the vineyard of our Lord with zeal and success, and the work was his delight. He firmly maintained our doctrines and discipline. During his last illness, he exhorted his friends to live near to God and for eternity: his patience was exemplary—his faith unshaken—his peace uninterrupted—and his consolations abundant. He died at Brechin, Feb. 16, 1810, in the 23d year of his ministry, and the 62d year of his age.

9. John Allen, a man of good report among all who knew him, and a judicious, faithful, and affectionate preacher: he began his itinerant labours in the year 1776, and continued to travel with very great approbation, and considerable success, till the year 1799, when, by various infirmities, he was obliged to retire from public life, and was appointed a supernumerary in Liverpool. Here he preached occasionally that gospel, which had long been the joy and delight of his heart; and though he had often to struggle with much weakness, used cheerfully to say, "I love my Master and his work." Of late he was unable either to preach, write, or walk; but would not relinquish his attendance on the ordinances of God, while any means could be contrived to carry him to the Lord's house. The means of grace were to the last, the proper element of his soul. Meekness, gentleness, simplicity, resignation, and humility, were christian tempers which he possessed in a high degree; and one who was long and intimately acquainted with him testifies, that for many years, he never was observed to be ruffled with pride or anger. Ten days previous to his departure from this world, in preparing to come to the chapel, he had a fall, which occasioned much pain in his side; after this his strength rapidly declined, and on Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1810, in the 73d year of his age, the weary wheels of life stood still. In the morning of that day, though unable to converse much, he was remarkably recollected, and when asked by a friend, "Have you strong confidence in God?" he replied, "Yes?" A fuller account of Mr. Allen may be expected to appear shortly in the Methodist Magazine.

10. Abraham Haigh. He was serious almost from his infancy; when scarcely eight years of age, his mind was graciously and savingly affected, while his uncle, Mr. Lumb, was preaching his farewell sermon at Sowerby, previous to his departure upon his five years mission to the West Indies. Young as he then was, the gracious impression made upon his mind never wore off. When very young, he began to exhort and persuade his neighbours to flee from the wrath to come; and, after being employed for several years as a Local Preacher, in the year 1803 he became an Itinerant. He encountered various difficulties and hardships, which the Lord supported him in, and brought him out of. His character had no blot. He was diligent and zealous in his ministerial labours, and, upon some occasions especially, the Lord favoured him with encouraging success. He was a person of plain manners, sound integrity, great meekness, quietness, patience, and humility. His constitution was not strong, and the sleeping in a damp bed very probably gave that stab to his health which no medicine could cure. In general, Brother Haigh was very composed and comfortable in his mind, during his affliction and the decay of his animal frame. And though he was violently assailed by the powers of darkness, yet the Lord upheld and delivered him out of the hand of the enemy, and filled him with faith, peace, hope, and joy. With calmness and confidence he resigned his spirit into the hands of his faithful Creator and merciful and gracious Redeemer.

11. John Mason, in the 78th year of his age. He continued to labour with great usefulness, approbation, and unblemished character, till the year 1797, when, owing to increasing infirmities, he was obliged to desist from a more active life, and confine his labours within a narrower sphere. He settled at West Meon, a village near Portsmouth, from whence he used to visit the neighbouring Societies, and supply the lack of the Travelling Preachers, when called away on necessary business; on these occasions his sermons were remarkably blessed to the people, and particularly those of his latter days. On the 22d of April, 1810, being Easter-Sunday, whilst worshipping in West Meon Church, he was taken ill, and continued to languish till the Friday following, when his spirit entered into the kingdom of God. A person who was intimately acquainted with him in all the relations in which he stood to society, and to the Church of Christ, speaks of him in the following manner:—"When I say that Mr. Mason was a man, I use the word in its noblest sense. He made it the study of his life to maintain this character by cultivating his mind in every branch of useful knowledge within his reach, and his profiting was great. In the history of the world, and the history of the Church, he was very extensively read. With Anatomy and Medicine he was well acquainted, and his knowledge of Natural History, particularly of Botany, was very extensive. In the latter science he was inferior to few in the British empire. His Botanical collections would do credit to the first museum in Europe, and especially his collections of English plants, all gathered, preserved, classified, and described by himself. But this was his least praise. He laid all his attainments in natural sciences under contribution to his Theological studies: nor could it ever be said, that he neglected his duty as a Christian minister, to cultivate his mind in Philosophical pursuits. He was a Christian man, and in his life and spirit adorned the doctrine of God his Saviour. The decency, propriety, and dignity of his conduct, through the whole of his life, were truly exemplary. And his piety towards God, and his benevolence towards man, were as deep as they were sincere. I am constrained to add, he was a man, take him for all in all, I shall not look upon his like again."

12. Robert Lomas, whose praise is in all our churches; a man of unblemished character, and of remarkable faithfulness toward all he had to do with. The integrity of his heart, and the inflexible firmness of his mind, have not often been exceeded in christians of the most distinguished piety. His abilities, as an arithmetician, rendered him so singularly useful to the Connexion, that, in the year 1808, the following resolutions were printed in the Minutes of the Conference:—1. "Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of this Conference be returned to Mr. Robert Lomas, for his very laborious, faithful, and successful services in our Book-Room." 2. "Resolved unanimously, That Mr. Lomas be requested to accept the office of General Auditor of all our accounts; and that he be authorised to procure such assistants in that work, as he may judge necessary." As a minister of the gospel of God our Saviour, he was a workman that needed not to be ashamed, giving to all their portion in due season, and watching over the flock as a true shepherd. Yet this great and blessed servant of Christ was called away in the strength of his years, being only 41 years old. His complaint was a violent fever on his brain, which greatly affected his reason, though at times it was restored, and his conversation was such as became a man of God, full of purity, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. He went to rest on Monday, the 11th of June. He met the Select Society in Bristol, on Sunday morning, the 1st of April, and testified with considerable energy, that he felt the presence of God very powerfully;—that his heart was full of divine love; and that Jesus Christ was truly precious to his soul. And just before he expired, being asked if he were happy, he replied, "Yes, very happy." Being further asked, "Is Christ now precious?" he said, "Yes, very precious; my crown is coming, I am going to receive my crown." He then turned on his side, drew up his feet, and expired without a groan.

13. John Sandoe. He was a native of Cornwall, and travelled twenty years, when, by reason of affliction, he was obliged, in 1807, to become a Supernumerary. But he continued to labour as his strength permitted, till within a few months of his death, which happened July the 4th, at Wrington, in Somersetshire, in the 55th year of his age. Like Obadiah, he feared the Lord from his youth, and in his 17th year, was brought to experience the gracious liberty of the gospel. During the whole time of his itinerancy, he walked humbly and closely with his

God. He was a sincere lover of the Methodist doctrines and discipline. His piety, being fervent and uniform, tended exceedingly to recommend his ministerial labours, which were always performed with fidelity and zeal; and were frequently owned by his Divine Master in many places. He had long laboured under a diseased action of the heart and contiguous arteries, which terminated in an hydrathorax, or dropsy of the chest; and a complication of both diseases was the apparent cause of his death. His sufferings, particularly towards the last, were very great. But he was remarkably supported by the power of grace. And his end was not only peace, but triumph, for the Lord was pleased to favour him with strong consolation, and finally ministered unto him an abundant entrance into glory.

* * * It is much to be desired that all our friends would take due care to have the beds in which they put the Preachers, perfectly dry.

Q. 12. What can we do to render the public ministry of God's word more profitable and pleasing during the period of our Annual Conferences?

A. The President of the Conference, for the time being, shall have the right of appointing such brethren as he shall deem most proper to preach in the principal chapel during the first fortnight of the succeeding Conference, and, after consulting with them by letter, shall also fix the general subject on which each of them is to preach; of which notice shall be given to each preacher so appointed, at least three months before the Conference.

Q. 13. As several complaints have been made of great impositions practised upon some of our simple people by Quacks and Empirics, especially such as pretend to cure all diseases in the eyes, what is the opinion of the Conference on this subject?

A. We are unanimously of opinion that no countenance or support should be given to such persons, and we earnestly exhort all our Preachers, both itinerant and local, and all the members of our societies, to have no intercourse or connexion with them.

Q. 14. What is the judgment of the Conference concerning the practice of admitting Preachers into full connexion, formally and publickly, at the District Meetings?

A. On mature consideration, the rule which permitted that practice is now repealed; and the solemn designation of our young Preachers to the work of the Christian ministry among us, by their formal admission into full connexion, shall take place only at our Annual Conferences.

Q. 15. In what way can the present large debt of our connexion be best discharged?

A. According to the Resolution of the Conference in 1809, there shall be no collections for chapels during the ensuing year: but in lieu thereof, a collection for paying off the public debt shall be made in every circuit in the month of January or February, 1811, and remitted to Mr. Blanshard, our Book-steward, immediately.

Q. 16. What more can be done to secure the prosperity and permanency of the work of God at Gibraltar?

A. 1. It is agreed that Gibraltar shall henceforth be considered as one of our regular circuits, subject to the same Regulations respecting appointments, removals, and a constant succession of preachers, as the circuits in Great Britain.

2. The Missionary Committee have authority to apply to any of our regular married preachers, now at home, whom they may deem proper to succeed Brother William Griffith in the Gibraltar station at the next Conference; and when the consent of any such preacher has been obtained, to make the necessary arrangements for carrying the change into effect.

3. The sum of five hundred pounds shall be granted from the Mission-Funds in aid of the noble and generous exertions of our society and friends at Gibraltar for the erection of a chapel at that place.

Q. 17. Who are the Committee for guarding our privileges during the ensuing year?

A. The Rev. Dr. Coke, George Wolff, Esq. Christopher Sundius, Esq. William Marriott, Esq. Mr. Joseph Butterworth, Mr. Robert Middleton, Mr. Joseph Bulmer, Mr. Launcelot Haslope, Mr. William Jerram, Mr. Thomas Allan, all the Preachers appointed for the two London Circuits, Thomas Thompson, Esq. M. P. of Hull, Thomas Holy, Esq. of Sheffield, Mr. John Ward, jun. of Durham, Mr. George Lomas, of Manchester, Mr. Joseph Dutton, of Liverpool, Mr. James Ewer, of Bristol, and Samuel Popplewell, Esq. of Harewood, near Leeds.

Q. 18. How may we transact the business of our future Conferences with greater expedition?

A. 1. Let the stationing committee assemble at nine o'clock in the morning of the Monday preceding the Meeting of the Conference; that they may have their plan of stations completely prepared in the course of that week.

2. Let three auditors be appointed to examine all the accounts of the year; and that this may be done, as far as possible, in such time as will enable them to make their reports at an early period of the Conference, they also shall meet on the Monday of the week preceding the commencement of the Conference.—

N. B. Brothers Waddy, Marsden, and Braithwaite are appointed auditors for the year 1811.

3. Let the several committees, which are usually appointed by the Conference on the first day of its sitting for the consideration of Book-affairs, Missions, &c. &c. be required to meet, for the transaction of the business referred to them, in the evenings of the first week, and to prepare their respective reports at as early a period as possible.

4. The chairmen of our districts are required not only to examine very minutely in their District-meetings, all persons proposed to travel as Preachers among us; but also to report distinctly in their District-minutes, for the consideration of the Conference, the opinion of the District-meetings, after such examination, respecting their health, piety, and moral character, ministerial abilities, belief of our doctrines, attachment to our discipline, and freedom from debt, as well as from all secular incumbrances. In the same District-minutes, the Preacher who recommends any candidate shall state his age, and sign a recommendatory character of him, which may forthwith be copied, if the Conference receive such candidate upon trial, into the book provided for that purpose.

Q. 19. Has our discipline been sufficiently enforced?

A. In some places, and in some particulars, we find it has not. Tickets have been given to certain persons who have entirely given up Class-meeting; and Leaders have given notes of admission by their own authority. Let our Superintendants take care to put an end to these irregularities; and let them also require all our Leaders regularly to attend their respective Leaders' meetings.

Q. 20. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. At Sheffield, in the last Monday in July, 1811.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Conference,

JOSEPH BENSON, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

ADDRESSES.

The ADDRESS from the IRISH to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

MAY Peace and every spiritual blessing be given to you, and abound, from God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

We received your cordial Address, and are sincerely thankful for those annual communications which convey the kind expressions of your love to us, and we feel no small degree of pleasure in having the opportunity from year to year, of expressing, in a similar way, our unfeigned affection for you; we trust this social intercourse will be still preserved, as it serves to promote the spirit of Christian love, and to render our sacred union more intimate and lasting.

Conscious that we are all united under one head in the same design, and in the same work, we most heartily rejoice that the pleasure of the Lord prospers in your hands. As there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth, so all who have themselves repented will participate that joy. O that God may cause us always to triumph in (the prosperity of the kingdom of) Christ, and “make manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place!”

Arrived at this period, we look back with hearts deeply affected with gratitude to the God of all our mercies, for his goodness eminently exercised towards us in the past year. None of our Preachers have died, and notwithstanding the painful exercises and afflictions of some of our dear Brethren, “having obtained help of God, we continue to this day;” but that which above all demands and excites our praise is this; that the great Head of the Church has blessed our labours, and employed us, as instruments in his hands, of turning sinners from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God. Nearly two thousand souls have been added to our Societies since the last Conference, many of whom we can have no doubt are joined to the Lord in one spirit; this blessed enlargement of the Redeemer’s kingdom has taken place partly in the regular Circuits, and partly by means of our dear Brethren, the Irish Missionaries, whom the Lord has made peculiarly successful in opening new places.

We are “determined not to know any thing among men save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.” To the publication of the peculiar doctrines of the Cross, under the Divine blessing, we owe all our successes. By these, sinners are subdued, penitents lifted up, and believers purified, comforted, and established in the ways of the Lord. Full sanctification, or entire purity of heart, producing active uniform holiness of life, is a doctrine which seems committed peculiarly to our care; and we are more and more convinced of the necessity of warmly enforcing it upon our people, that “leaving the principles of the Doctrine of Christ they may go on to perfection.”

We are fully resolved to abide by those rules of discipline, which were drawn up and delivered to us for the regulation of our societies, by our venerable Father in the Gospel; persuaded that they are founded in the word of God, and tend to the purity, the prosperity, and the glory of the church of Christ.

Our Conference has been one of the most blessed we have ever known: a solemn and comfortable sense of the Divine presence rested upon us; many things of deep concern and importance have come before us; and all have been impartially discussed in the fear of the Lord: our decisions have been such as give general satisfaction, and we trust are acceptable to God. There is but one common sentiment prevails among us, and that is Love—Love to God, his church, and to each other.

We unanimously appoint our confidential and beloved Brother, the Rev. Adam Averell, as our Representative, and shall cheerfully receive as our President, next year, any Person whom you may think proper to nominate for that purpose.

Now that the God of wisdom and love may preside in your Conference, and direct all your consultations to the increase of his spiritual kingdom, your own happiness, and the eternal glory of his ever-blessed name; is, very dear Fathers and Brethren, the fervent prayer of

Your truly affectionate Brethren in Christ Jesus.

Signed in behalf of the Conference,

S. WOOD, Secretary.

Dublin, July 16, 1810.

THE ANSWER of the BRITISH CONFERENCE to the ADDRESS of the IRISH CONFERENCE.

Very dear Brethren,

WHOM we love in our common Lord with pure hearts fervently; may mercy and peace be abundantly multiplied unto you, by the eternal Spirit of grace, through the saving knowledge and love of God, and the mediation of the Lord Jesus Christ, in whom we rejoice as our adorable Redeemer, and to whom, with the Father and the Spirit, be ascribed by you, and us, and all the churches of the saints, glory, honour, and praise, both now and for ever!

“As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of Hosts, in the city of our God, God will establish it for ever.”

The great and glorious revival of evangelical religion, in faith, experience, and practice, which God begun, through the instrumentality of our predecessors, has not been the short-lived revival of a day. He who divinely anointed the first instruments, who plenteously endued them with power from on high, and who made their way plain before them, is graciously pleased to favour their successors in the same blessed cause, with undeniable evidence, that the residue of the Spirit is still with him; that he hath not left us orphans, nor permitted the door of providence to be shut. Still he continues to bear his divine testimony to the word of his grace, which, through his help, we have endeavoured to maintain inviolably, by kindly succeeding our feeble ministry with effects similar to those which so pleasingly attended the labours of our forefathers. We are permitted to behold that sinners, awakened to a sense of their guilt, misery, and danger through sin, are led to bring forth fruits meet for repentance: we see that the Holy Ghost glorifies the Redeemer, by exhibiting his great salvation to humble penitents: we perceive that many, having in themselves the sentence of death, have been brought to the foot of the cross, have been freely justified by faith in Christ, obtaining redemption in his blood, even the forgiveness of sin: and we, likewise, behold how the grace of God effectuates deliverance from the bondage and pollution of sin, in the hearts and lives of all true believers.

We believe, dear Brethren, that a principal design for which the Lord raised up our predecessors, was to call back the Christian churches to the public acknowledgment and faithful maintenance of these grand truths, namely, Justification by Faith, testified by Luther to be the fundamental doctrine of the Reformation; and Holiness of Heart and Life, produced by the regenerating and purifying influence of the Sacred Spirit, which God hath given to all, who, through believing in Christ, have obtained the privileges and blessings of adoption. As these concomitant doctrines were peculiarly and most eminently committed to those who preceded us in the ministry of the word, so we have hitherto been enabled, by the indulgence of Providence, and the supply of the Spirit of Christ, to maintain the same important truths, and, we hope, in the same scriptural manner, with fidelity and meekness of wisdom, walking by the same rule, and minding the same thing. Nor, while thus divinely favoured, shall we at any time be ashamed of the doctrines which are according to godliness, though Pharisaism be opposed to Justification by Faith, and the equally pernicious, but specious error of Antinomianism, be set in opposition against that holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. We consider the gospel as presenting to all mankind a free and full redemption from all iniquity. We uniformly expect to see in all who profess obedience to it, the genuine evidences of vital faith working by love to God and man, in the steady practice of piety, justice, and mercy. This the sacred Scripture requires of christian believers, in all the relations of life to which they are called in the order of providence; that in devotedness to God, and doing all possible good to men, they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour, whose glory it is, not only to justify the ungodly, but to sanctify the unholy.

Hence, upon this very principle, we are as much, if not more disposed, than at any former period, to enforce our excellent discipline among those who have first given themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God. And we have much reason for thankfulness that, in general, we behold in our flocks, a people zealous of good works, leading quiet and peaceable lives in all godliness and honesty. By their well-doing, as enjoined on the primitive christians, they in many places put to silence the ignorance of foolish men, while candid spectators acknowledge, that they are to the Lord for a name and for a praise. This, we presume, will yet be more eminently manifest, while we carefully lay the only foundation, which is Jesus Christ, and punctually attend to the duty of raising a useful and permanent superstructure of gold, silver, and precious stones; while we desire above all things, and unremittingly labour to edify the church, that, in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, it may attain unto the fulness of Christ.

Your account of the success of the ministry among you during the past year, and of the pleasing appearances in all the societies, and of the love and unity which existed among you in your last Conference, gladdens us exceedingly. We are persuaded you also will rejoice when we inform you that, through the good hand of our God upon us, we too can present a similar report. Our increase has been very considerable, our prospects in our societies are fair, and we believe, that such a pleasing and profitable Conference was never held before in this metropolis. This hath the Lord wrought.

According to your usual request in regard to a man who shall succeed our dear brother Averell, in presiding at your Conference, our highly respected friend and brother, Dr. Coke, whose indefatigable labours among you are well known and deservedly prized by our whole body, having declined that situation, we have appointed our beloved brother, Dr. Clarke, whose visit to Ireland will, we doubt not, be most welcome, and rendered, as we fervently hope, an abundant blessing to you and to many.

May God have you in his holy keeping!

Signed, &c.

Q. 4. What Preachers have died during the last year?

A. 1. George Baldwin, who, at a very early period of his life, was awakened, and savingly brought to God, under the ministry of Mr. George Snowden. He afterwards joined the Methodist Society, and became a steady member, and an useful Local Preacher. In the year 1786 he was called out to labour in the Lord's vineyard as an Itinerant Preacher, and for twenty-four years discharged the duties of that important calling with diligence, faithfulness, and zeal. As a private christian, he adorned in all things the doctrines of God our Saviour; and as a public Minister of the Gospel, he was sound in the faith, a lover of good men, and an exact observer of the scriptural discipline of Methodism. He laboured under a painful affliction several months before his death; but, by the use of the Bath-Waters, was supposed to be so much recovered as to be able to take an easy circuit. This circumstance afforded him great pleasure, as he wished to die in the blessed work of his Master; but on the Friday before the sitting of the Conference in 1810, his disorder returned, and put a period to his life just at the time when that Conference commenced. The day before his death he said to a friend, "My confidence is stronger than it is in general, and I feel perfectly resigned to the will of God, whether I live or die."

2. Robert Swan, a native of North Britain, who laboured as an Itinerant Preacher twenty-six years. His labours were blessed to the salvation of many; some of whom are now employed in the ministry of the Word. During the last fifteen years of his life, he resided at Alnwick, where his usefulness was much impeded by affliction. As far as his health would permit, he diligently attended the ordinances of religion. Towards the close of his life, his sufferings were great; but he endured them with the patience and resignation of a christian; and on the 19th of September, 1810, he finished his course with joy.

3. Pierre du Pontavice. He was born of illustrious and very affectionate parents, at Fougere, in France, in the year 1770.—He emigrated at the Revolution, and, by a singular providence, having escaped all perils and dangers in various parts of the Continent, arrived safe in Jersey; where he became acquainted with the Methodist Ministers, by whose conversation, example, and preaching, he profited much. Some years after, travelling with Dr. Coke, he was brought under deep anguish of mind, and then saved by faith in Christ, at Sheffield, under the prayers of Messrs. Henry Taylor and Bramwell, as may be seen in the Arminian Magazine for the year 1796, (page 537.) “God,” says he, “spoke these kind words to my heart, ‘I will remember thy sins no more; I will wipe all tears from thine eyes!’ I believed; I felt an assurance of pardon; my soul was filled with joy unspeakable; from that moment I have rejoiced in the Lord, and his Spirit hath witnessed with my spirit that I am a child of God. I feel that God dwells in me, and I in him; and as Christ prayed that the faithful might be one in him, I now feel myself united to them as I never did before. God grant we may never be disunited, but that our union may be more and more intimate in time and in eternity!” His prayer was heard; for on his part, he never was disunited: for his love to the children of God increased more and more unto the end. He felt an inward call to the ministry, and began as an Itinerant, in his native language, in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, in the year 1800, and continued till July, 1802. Then Providence called him back to his native country. There he preached as in the Islands, with general acceptance, and as good success as could be expected. His sweet and loving address gained the affections of his numerous hearers. His great circumspection, self-denial, and punctuality, in every branch of his office, obtained the approbation of all that knew him. He was so regular, temperate, patient, meek, humble, and lowly; so prudent and judicious, that he drew the affection, and excited the admiration of those who had the privilege of his company and conversation. In a word, he so conducted himself with men of all ranks, tempers, and dispositions, that he found favour in the sight of all with whom he had to do. He spent his last years and remaining strength chiefly with five Protestant congregations near Bolbec in France. Soon after he had begun to preach in public, and to instruct, exhort, and pray from house to house, an old man with tears of gratitude said, “This Pastor has been sent us of God; and there is already a great reformation in the people.” The Protestant ministers held him in high estimation on account of his deep piety, and faithfulness in the ministry. Hence he had several invitations to officiate at Bolbec, Havre-de-Grace, Rouen, &c.; and on these occasions their churches were crowded with both Protestants and Roman Catholics, who heard him with deep attention. He boarded at Monsieur Cadoret's, one of the Protestant ministers, who, with his wife, is converted, and truly pious. And as they have a very large family with a small income, he was to them a friend and a brother indeed. He spent but little upon himself, and abounded in good works. His whole income was prudently distributed to the poor of his flock. He acted the part of the true christian, and of a good shepherd. But, alas! this shining and burning light was soon extinct. Mr. du Pontavice, no longer able to fill up the duties of his sacred office, retired to Beuville, where was a society more established in grace, and better able to judge of, and profit by, his deep and heavenly converse; there he lived two months in great sufferings, and close fellowship with God. His peace flowed as a river, he was overjoyed at the thoughts of death. He longed to depart, and be with Christ; his hope was immortal, his joy unspeakable and full of glory. He praised God night and day, and when he had lost the power of speech, with his face like that of an angel, he lifted his right-hand, with his dying looks towards heaven, and then fell asleep in his beloved Jesus, in so sweet a manner that his last breath could not be perceived. He died December 1, 1810.

4. Parson Greenwood, aged 83, who had laboured in our connexion as an Itinerant Preacher for 31 years. He entered upon the office of a Travelling Preacher in the year 1762, and preached with much acceptance in the various Circuits to which he was appointed, and we believe that his ministry was owned of God. When the infirmities incident to old age constrained him to retire from his labours as an Itinerant, in the year 1793, he settled in Leeds, but continued to preach occasionally until a few months before his death. At the last Christmas Quarterly Meeting he rose up, and, leaning on the top of his staff, gave a most impressive and solemn charge to all present, and informed them, that he believed it was the last quarterly meeting he should ever live to attend. A few weeks afterwards he sickened, and with calmness and composure resigned his body to death, and his spirit into the hands of Him who gave it.

5. Booth Newton. At the age of nineteen he was deeply convinced of the sinfulness of sin, and brought to the saving knowledge of God through Jesus Christ. He was pious and upright, studious and faithful, endued with good ministerial abilities, and laboured as an Itinerant Preacher about seventeen years with great acceptance; but his affliction was such, that he was under the necessity of becoming a Supernumerary for nearly the last four years of his life. He preached occasionally in Whitby, Robinhood's Bay, and elsewhere, with great profit to the hearers.

His last affliction was short. Sometimes his reason was disturbed; at other times he was recollected and happy in God. In the 43d year of his age he departed in peace to rest with God in glory.

6. John Watson, who commenced his itinerant labours in the year 1799. He was a man of sound sense, solid piety, and great integrity of mind. His whole soul was engaged in the sacred work in which he was employed, and his ministry was crowned with the divine blessing. He came out with a remarkably strong constitution, but by being put into a damp bed,* a spitting of blood ensued. This appeared to have given a severe blow to that strength of constitution which he originally possessed. For the last eighteen months of his life he laboured under great bodily affliction, which he bore with patience and christian fortitude, his confidence in the Redeemer being firm and unshaken. On the evening before his dissolution he began to write a letter to his brother, in which he says, "At present I am in a very weak state, and have very little hope of recovery, but am confident that all will be well; I am in the hands of God, and he will make all things work together for my good. I now find that religion, which I have often recommended to others, to be my support, with an eternal world before me." On Monday morning, July 15, he awoke with a cough, attended with vomiting of blood, which rendered him speechless, and in a few minutes his happy spirit was introduced into the company of just men made perfect in the heavenly Jerusalem.

7. John Charrington; a young man of solid piety, and deep seriousness; rather of a reserved temper. He voluntarily engaged as a Missionary to the Negroes in the West Indies, and died in peace in that blessed work, in the Island of Nevis.

8. James Alexander, Jun. He had but lately entered upon the work of the ministry in Nova Scotia; and during the sitting of our Conference, intelligence of his death was received. The account states no particulars, except that his end was triumphant.

Q. 5. Are there any objections to any of our Preachers?

A. They were examined one by one.

Q. 6. Who have desisted from travelling?

A. 1. John Harrison, who retires, for the present, from want of health; but should his health be restored in the course of the ensuing year, he will be called out into the work again, and considered as having travelled three years.

2. John Jones, who retired last year from want of health.

* This is one, among the many instances that have occurred, and are still frequently occurring, of the bad effects produced by sleeping in damp beds.

Q. 13. Who is appointed to preside in the next Irish Conference?

A. Dr. Adam Clarke.

Q. 14. Can any thing be done, in order more effectually to promote family religion among our people?

A. 1. We again earnestly enforce upon all the people under our care a conscientious and uniform attention to this important subject; and solemnly exhort them to maintain the practice of daily prayer in their houses; to have stated times allotted for this purpose; to fix their morning worship, for instance, just before breakfast, and their evening worship just before supper; to make the daily reading of the Holy Scriptures a constant part of their domestic devotion; to require not only some but all the members of their respective families to be present at the time of family-worship; and to allow of no excuses, except in case of sickness, or other unavoidable emergencies; and, once at least in every week, to catechise their children and servants, and converse with them individually on the business of religion.

2. We require all our Preachers to make particular inquiries into the state of family-religion in their Circuits; to enforce the duties above-mentioned in the Leaders' Meetings and in the Society Meetings; and to speak on the subject closely and strongly to every class, in their Quarterly Visitations of the Societies.

Q. 15. What method can we adopt to promote a more extensive circulation of our Tracts?

A. We recommend to every Superintendant to form a Committee in his Circuit, who may co-operate with the General Committee in London for the purpose of disseminating Religious Tracts throughout the land.

Q. 16. Have all the branches of our discipline been properly executed?

A. We fear not; and therefore the Conference directs that every Superintendant shall take care that the Plans for the Local and Travelling Preachers be made by himself or his colleagues; that no person be permitted to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's-Supper, but a Travelling Preacher in full connexion; that the stewards be annually changed or re-elected in every Circuit; and that the chapels which are not yet settled, be speedily settled on the Conference Plan. The Conference desires that all the chairmen of Districts will inquire particularly into these matters at the District-meetings, and report the result of their inquiries to the ensuing Conference.

Q. 17. Can any thing be done to promote the holiness and usefulness of our Leaders of Classes?

A. Let a strict inquiry be made by the Superintendant Preacher in the Leaders' meeting, at least twice in the year, into the moral character of all the Leaders, their punctuality in beginning and ending their Class-meetings in proper time, and every thing that relates to their office.

Q. 18. Are any directions to be given respecting collections for our Missions?

ADDRESSES.

The ADDRESS from the IRISH to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

ON receipt of your Address, we were led to reflect upon the advantages which we enjoy, above those who were the first labourers in Ireland, in that good work in which we are now engaged: and when we consider their long journeys, cold reception, and poor accommodations, together with the scorn and persecution which they suffered, and then think of the favourable alteration which we find in these respects, we may justly own, that they, at least in some degree, have borne the burden and heat of the day. "They have laboured, and we have entered into their labours." Still, however, we feel ourselves called to bear the burden of the Lord; and in our respective stations, the impressive admonition of St. Paul to his son Timothy, strongly applies itself to each of us.—"Do the work of an evangelist, and make full proof of thy ministry."

Our predecessors have done much: notwithstanding; we still, feel, that we have much to do!—Much, in "feeding the church of God, which he has purchased with his own blood;" in "building them up on their most holy faith;" and in "watching for their souls as they that must give account:—much, in labouring for the conversion of sinners, that we may be "pure from the blood of all men;"—and much, "to preserve ourselves unspotted from the world," "giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed." In fine, when we consider the arduous labours, and awful responsibility attached to our sacred character, we are constrained to cry, "who is sufficient for these things!" But, as we are persuaded we have not run without a divine call, we are encouraged with the recollection, that our sufficiency is of God." We are, therefore, determined to go forward in his strength, "looking to Jesus," who hath said, "preach the Gospel to every creature, and, lo ! I am with you alway, even to the end of the world."

In reviewing the past year, innumerable incentives to gratitude and devout affection crowd our minds. Besides all our family and national mercies, which are not a few, the Lord has greatly blessed us in our various circuits.—Many persons have been enabled, through divine grace, to rejoice in the "knowledge of salvation, by the remission of sins," and some to realize in their own experience, that "God is not only faithful and just to forgive us our sins, but also, to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."—The toilsome exertions of our dear Brethren, the Irish Missionaries, have also been much owned of God in several places, particularly the Galway and Tyrone Missions, and, although our increase of number is not so great as it was the year before, we trust, that, upon the whole, the last year has not been less prosperous : and when we consider the state of our Societies and Congregations at large, and the general temper of the people towards us, we "lift up our eyes, and behold the fields white already to harvest."

In the course of our examination, the following Doctrines were brought under review, viz.—The total depravity of human nature ; or what is commonly called "Original Sin :"—The essential Divinity of Jesus Christ : his death as an atonement for sin, and for the sins of the whole world :—Justification by faith in his blood :—The internal witness of the Spirit, as the evidence of our adoption into the family of God :—The utter destruction of the carnal mind, or, Salvation from all sin in this life ; and the proper eternity of rewards and punishments in the life to come : all which are so clearly revealed in the sacred Scriptures. The investigation, we trust, has tended to improve our minds in the knowledge of those doctrines, and to confirm us more fully in the faith. Many observations were also made concerning the exercise of the Christian ministry, which, we humbly hope, will have a good effect upon our future labours. We are fully resolved, God being our helper, clearly to state, and with all our power to enforce, the above doctrines ; not merely as articles of faith, but, also, as principles of conduct.

By your appointment of our beloved and highly respected Friend and Brother, Dr. Clarke, to be our President, you have conferred upon us a great favour. His labours have been most acceptable and useful, both as a Minister of Jesus Christ, and as the President of our Conference. We have only to regret, that his stay among us has been so short. But we unanimously and most heartily request, that you will again favour us, by appointing him to be President of our next Conference ; and that you will so arrange matters, that he may have time to make a general tour through that part of his native country, which he has not been able to visit this year. We ardently desire this, as we believe such a tour would be of great service to the cause of God: and as that is what you are desirous to promote in common with us, we are the more encouraged to hope for your compliance with this our most earnest request.

To our faithful and beloved Brother, the Rev. Adam Averell, we have committed our concerns, and unanimously appoint him our Representative to your Conference.

We have you in our hearts, and shall continue to make mention of you in our prayers. "Brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you."

We are, very dear Fathers and Brethren, your most sincerely affectionate Brethren, in our common Lord and Saviour.

Signed in behalf of the Conference,

MATTHEW LANKTREE, Secretary.

The ANSWER of the BRITISH CONFERENCE to the ADDRESS of
the IRISH CONFERENCE.

Dearly Beloved Brethren,

IT is our earnest prayer to the God of all grace, that you may prosper in all things conducive to your temporal, spiritual, and eternal welfare. Hence we cannot but rejoice in your joy, and tenderly sympathize with you in all your troubles. Of course, when your pleasing address was read in the Conference, it produced gladness of heart in all present, to hear of the prosperity of Zion among you. In an especial manner we rejoice in the success of your Missionaries. This plan of preaching is truly primitive, and presents to our minds the Apostles and their Coadjutors, when engaged in propagating the glorious gospel of God our Saviour. We also have great cause of thankfulness for the success which has attended the labours of these servants of the Lord, through various parts of this kingdom. Indeed, though our faith has not been without its peculiar trials this year, yet, on the whole, it has been a good and blessed year. None of the travelling Preachers have died, which is a circumstance so different from the year before, that we must reflect upon it as a singular mark of divine favour towards us. And what adds to it, we have cause to be thankful that our lives have been spared for the best of purposes, namely, the increase of the converts to Christ's kingdom, above seven thousand of whom are added to our Society. This is the twentieth Conference since the great and good Mr. John Wesley was taken from our head; the loss of whom we had for some time great cause to deplore. Beset with men who strove to alter, and thereby to overturn the well-ordered constitution of our connexion, we felt the want of our divinely appointed centre of union, and could not but fear an alarming division taking place in our Body. This drove us to God for special help, and he heard us "in a time accepted," and made it a "day of salvation." The design of our grand enemy was defeated, our union confirmed, and, through the whole of these twenty years, notwithstanding the partial interruptions of our quiet, we are constrained to testify, to the honour of our Lord Jesus Christ, "He hath done all things well." Nor do we consider it among the least of our innumerable mercies, that we see our every blessing coming from the hand of our ever adorable God. It is rather the crowning favour of all, that he gives us this proof of his goodness, that he himself is the only satisfying portion of our souls. Yes! thou Sovereign Being of all beings! thou art the supreme object of our delight, and to thee we ascribe the praise and glory of all our enjoyments. O Brethren! join with us in one continual thanksgiving for the distinguishing honour conferred upon you and us, by the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, who hath put us into the Ministry, and given us souls for our hire.

As to our union with you, we consider it founded on the love of God, which being in its nature lasting as our existence, we view ourselves and you as one in Christ for ever. This consideration makes us look upon our annual addresses to each other as simple expressions of our mutual affection, in the spirit of which we anticipate a portion of the happiness we shall feel when we meet together, where we shall know as we are known, and rejoice in the uninterrupted fellowship of saints and angels to all eternity. Animated by such expectations, we join with you, dear Brethren, in glowing zeal for the spread of the glory of Him, who on earth and in heaven, is and will be our all in all. What marks have we constantly of our living under a Theocracy! directed and preserved as we are by a divine Providence, that is nothing less than God in action, causing "all things to work together for our good." Our Conference, which is now near a close, has been honoured much by the presence of our Lord, and by strong proofs of our unanimity and brotherly love. Not but we have had some difficulties in stationing one another. The mental refinement among many of our people, which naturally arises from their improvement in knowledge, disposes some of them to wish for a greater degree of modern accomplishments in the language and address of their Preachers, than was expected in their first setting out in our blessed work, when plain simplicity of speech, enforcing experimental and practical religion, were thought sufficient recommendations in those who were sanctioned by the appointment of the Conference. We notice this, not so much for any evil that is yet done; but we see a danger which, if not prevented in due time, may be attended with bad consequences. We are not advocates for ignorance; but we know from Scripture, there is a knowledge that puffeth up, and a wisdom which is from beneath: from these we hope to be ever preserved, by our all-sufficient Saviour, God, and King. We expected much from the appointment of our dearly beloved Brother, Dr. Clarke, to be your President, and we have not been disappointed. At your request we have consented to his filling the same office among you the next Conference; not doubting, but he, by the grace of God, will be made a blessing to many, and particularly to the Preachers. We know well the delicacy of the Doctor's feelings with respect to our applause, or we should say many things concerning him. You will not conceive we had any intention in the least degree to slight you, by the following motion, which, for some weighty reasons, was put and carried by a great majority, viz. that your President must be one of the Hundred, and that the same man shall not be chosen President two years successively.

With your worthy Representative, the Rev. Mr. Averell, we are highly pleased, and shall be always glad to see him in our Conference, as the Rule respecting the President has nothing to do with the Representative.

And now, Brethren, we commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, beseeching him to bless you in all things, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen.

We remain, dearly beloved Brethren, your truly affectionate Brethren in Christ.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Conference,

CHARLES ATMORE, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

2. James Brookes and Robert Harrison, jun. are also to receive the consent of their respective Quarterly Meetings, before they can go to their appointments.

Q. 4. What Preachers have died during the last year?

A. 1. John Brown, sen. He travelled about ten years; and in mental vigour, moral worth, studious diligence, ministerial ability, and spiritual usefulness, he excelled most of his contemporaries. His conduct was distinctly marked by serenity, promptitude, decision, and perseverance. He was deeply pious. In conversation he was intelligent, frank, and manly. In the discharge of his relative duties, he was punctual and steady. In the improvement of his time, and the cultivation of his talents, he was regular and laborious. He meditated chiefly on the Holy Scriptures, gave himself principally to them, and his profiting appeared in all things. As a Preacher he was orthodox, ingenious, and powerful. His word was attended with an unction from God, and was greatly instrumental in the conviction of sinners, and the edifying of the body of Christ. He cordially approved, and assiduously promoted, every part of the economy of Methodism; believing it to be closely connected with the evangelization of the world, the universal diffusion of the divine glory, and the final happiness of the human race. He was not only a burning but also a shining light; and some of the first Circuits in the kingdom rejoiced in his light for the short season in which they were favoured with it. But it pleased the Disposer of all events, in his inscrutable but adorable Providence, in the morning of life to remove him from his labours to his reward. A catarrhal fever, with which he was seized during the last Conference, aggravated by a fresh cold on his journey from Wakefield to London, terminated in a violent attack of rheumatism, which put a period to his life, Sept. 17, 1811, in the 29th year of his age. Under this severe affliction, he was resigned, cheerful, and happy in God; declaring, a little before his departure, that the bed, on which he had endured so much pain, had been to him a bed of roses. Not to panegyryze the dead, but to provoke the living to emulation, and display the exceeding greatness of God's saving power, is the design of this sketch of the character of the late John Brown.

2. John Grant. Whilst young he was deeply convinced of sin, and truly converted to God, under the ministry of the Methodists. Before he was twenty-one years of age he began to preach the everlasting Gospel with great acceptance and usefulness. He was called to itinerate in the year 1790, in which sphere he continued to move, doing the work of an Evangelist, till prevented by severe indisposition. His religion was genuine, his experience sound, his doctrine pure, and his morals incorrupt. He possessed good natural parts. Strength of intellect, depth of thought, and justness of reasoning, were traits peculiarly eminent in his character. He had a memory so richly stored with the word of God, that he was, by many, emphatically denominated, The Walking Bible. He pursued his studies with unremitting attention, and fainted not at the difficulties which he met with in his way to the attainment of useful knowledge. His ministerial abilities rose above the common level; and numbers of persons in the various places where he was appointed to labour, will long retain the savour of his animated and judicious discourses. But, alas! how mysterious is the Providence of God! At the time when his future usefulness was anticipated with pleasure, it seemed meet to the Great Head of the Church to afflict him. The stroke was heavy, and peculiarty distressing. In this state he remained for several years with little variation, till at length, his bodily frame, no longer able to sustain the painful load, sunk beneath its pressure, and his spirit entered into that world where, "the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick." Previous to his dissolution, he spoke clearly of the deep things of God, expressed his faith in the atonement, and a confident expectation of future blessedness. Some of his last words were, "O bless the Lord, bless the Lord! I shall be saved at last. This is the happiest day I ever experienced upon earth. I shall soon be where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest." He died at Sheffield, in October, 1811.

3. Thomas Trethewey. He was a man of solid piety and respectable talents. About fourteen years since, he was obliged to desist from travelling, in consequence of great bodily infirmity. He was useful in visiting the sick, and occasionally preaching, as his health would permit, in several places to which the providence of God called him. In the latter part of his life, he was a great sufferer; but triumphed in the midst of all, praising God for his afflictive dispensations, expressing his wish to be filled with all the fulness of God, and saying, "He had no tormenting fear or anxious care." He died in peace, on Wednesday the 25th of February, 1812, aged 54.

4. Robert Costerdine. This worthy brother was born in the parish of Flixton, near Manchester, in 1726. In the beginning of his days, he had good impressions on his mind, and frequently retired into secret places for prayer; but as he grew up, those good impressions were worn away; and he ran with the multitude in the broad way to destruction. Some time after, he heard Mr. John Nelson preach upon Micah vi. 8, by which he was clearly convinced in his judgment, that the doctrine was true. Soon after he heard Mr. Whitefield, and the word came with such power, that for several weeks he was in great distress. Sin was now the object of his hatred, and he saw himself a poor, guilty, helpless sinner. In this painful situation he continued for six weeks; but in November, 1748, he says, "The Lord visited me in a manner which I shall never forget, with a sudden transition from death to life, from sorrow to joy; my sins were pardoned, and my person accepted, through him who died for sinners." Some time after he believed he was moved by the Holy Ghost to call sinners to repentance, and acted for some years as a Local Preacher: and in the year 1764, he was appointed to labour in Epworth Circuit, from which time he travelled among us twenty-nine years with an unblemished character. He was a man of a meek and quiet spirit, an useful Preacher, and a peaceful fellow-labourer. When obliged to desist through infirmities, he still preached occasionally, as long as he was able to go out of his house; but for several of the last years of his life, he was sorely afflicted. His death was sudden, but welcome. He found the great truths which he had preached to be the support of his happy soul in his last conflict; and entered into the joy of his Lord in the 85th year of his age.

5. Robert Finney. He was a man of true simplicity, godly sincerity, and unaffected piety. He laboured thirteen years as a Travelling Preacher with acceptance. After passing through deep waters, in which he was wonderfully supported, he entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

6. Samuel Botts. He was a man of a sweet and amiable disposition, and of solid piety, who understood our doctrines, and preached them with perspicuity. His health had been on the decline for several years; and for the last six months, his disorder so increased, as to render him incapable of attending to the duties of his ministry. He preached, however, on the Lord's day previous to his death; but complained of great subsequent debility. On Wednesday forenoon Mrs. Botts informed him that the physician said, that his end was near; he received the communication with unshaken confidence, and said, "My soul is centred in God—The Lord will provide." From that time he said little. Some of his last words were, "Heaven! Glory!" He died July 1, 1812.

7. David Vipond. He was a young man of an excellent spirit, and of considerable piety. He was esteemed by his brethren, acceptable to the people, and favoured with a measure of success in the great work of the Lord. And though his ministerial race was comparatively short, it is believed that not a few will rise up to bless the Lord in that day for his fervent prayers and faithful labours. In November last he took cold. A consumption ensued, which terminated his mortal life, July 12. During his long affliction, he was calm, prayerful, and happily resigned to the good pleasure of God. As death advanced, with slow but certain steps, he appeared still more clearly to realize himself as a ransomed sinner and humble believer in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; on whose infinite merits he solely depended, and joyfully expired in the lively expectation of eternal life. Some of his last words were, "Because thou didst for sinners die, Jesus in death remember me:" and again he exclaimed, looking upward, "Eternal life is there! Eternal Glory!"

8. Dermidd M'Dermidd, a Native of North Britain; who was brought to a saving knowledge of divine truth in early life. His ardent zeal for the salvation of souls induced him to offer himself as a Missionary for the West Indies. He was a young man of good understanding and sound experience; and was a very acceptable Preacher. His desire to win souls to Christ led him to labour beyond his strength, which produced great debility of body. In this afflicted state, his friends were of opinion, that a voyage to America might restore his health. He therefore set sail for North Carolina, but before the vessel reached its port, his immortal part entered into the glory of its Lord. According to the account of one who relates the circumstance, "He died in the full triumph of faith."

9. William Cooper. He was a native of Ireland, and well recommended by the Irish Conference. When he arrived in Liverpool, in consequence of his appointment for the West Indies, he gave the utmost satisfaction to those who knew him, of his deep piety and fervent zeal. His labours in the Indies were very short, but for the time were very useful. Within the year after his arrival, he was seized with a fever, which was permitted in the inscrutable providence of God to open to him the gate of everlasting glory. He died in the Island of Spanish Town, a small Virgin Island near Tortola. When Mr. Turner received at Tortola an account of his illness, he instantly took with him a physician: but when they arrived at Spanish Town, they found ~~opt~~ brother so exceedingly ill, that medical aid, and the most loving attention of his friends, were all in vain. With full and deep resignation to the will of God, and in great confidence and triumph, he committed his spirit into the hands of his gracious Saviour.

10. (Ireland.) John Grace. Who, after having attended the Annual District Meeting at Roscrea, was on his journey to the Conference, and had only reached Mountrath, (about twelve miles distance) when a previous inflammation on his lungs, accompanied with a high fever, rapidly terminated his life.—Brother Grace had travelled twenty-six years as a regular Methodist Preacher. And whether we consider his integrity—his unaffected piety—his ardent zeal for God, and the salvation of souls—his general uniformity of character, for so many years, or his ministerial abilities and usefulness, we cannot but express the regret we feel for the loss of our much loved, and long-respected Brother.—He died, July 2d, 1812, in the 53d year of his age.

11. William Rutledge. He travelled nearly two years; one of these was on the Irish Mission: the severe labours of which brought on that affliction, from which he never fully recovered.—He possessed a sound understanding, genuine piety, great integrity, and promised to be very useful.—He died June 23, 1812, giving proof of great patience and resignation to the divine will, and testifying the happiness of his mind.

A. Dr. Coke.

Q. 13. Who are the general Committee for guarding our privileges during the ensuing year?

A. The President and Secretary of the Conference; all the Preachers appointed for the two London Circuits: the Superintendants of the Deptford and Brentford Circuits: George Wolff, Esq. William Marriott, sen. Esq. Mr. Joseph Butterworth, Mr. Robert Middleton, Mr. Joseph Bulmer, Mr. Launcelot Haslope,

* Not having received the returns from America, of the present year, we insert the number in 1811.

Mr. William Jerram, Mr. Thomas Allan, Mr. David Bruce: Thomas Thompson, Esq. M. P. of Hull; Thomas Holy, Esq. of Sheffield; Mr. John Ward, jun. of Durham; Mr. James Ewer, of Bristol; Mr. Joseph Dutton, of Southport; Mr. James Murrow, of Liverpool; Mr. Benjamin Sadler, of Leeds; Mr. John Burton, of Manchester; Col. Sandys, of Helstone; and William Carne, Esq. of Penzance.

Q. 14. How are we to interpret our existing Rules concerning Preachers who are called into our Circuits during the intervals of our Conferences?

A. If they be previously entered on the list of reserve, and be called out before the Christmas following, they shall be considered at the ensuing Conference as having travelled one year. If they be not on the list of reserve, their Itinerancy is to be considered as commencing at the ensuing Conference; and they are to travel four years from that time before they are received into full connexion.

Q. 15. What direction shall be given concerning the administration of Baptism among us?

A. 1. Let that ordinance, if possible, be always administered in the public congregation.

2. Let us administer it, in general, only to the children of our own members, and those of our regular hearers.

3. Let a small fee be taken for registering baptisms where the parents can afford to pay it; and let all such fees, after defraying the expense of the register-book, be given to the poor, or added to some of our public funds.

Q. 16. What can be done to revive and extend Band Meetings?

A. 1. Let every Superintendant address to the believers under his care, met in their respective Societies, a strong and appropriate exhortation on the excellency of Band Meetings.

2. Let him meet all the leaders of the societies, and form out of their classes as many bands as possible, from those believers who do not at present meet in band, and who are willing so to do; putting into each band those who are most acquainted with each other.

3. Let him afterwards receive the applications of all the members of the bands with the utmost kindness and attention, so as to remove them from one band to another, and to meet the desires of each as far as possible.

4. The Weekly Meetings, commonly called the Meetings of the Public Bands, shall be established and attentively preserved, wherever the number of those who meet in band will admit of it.

5. Love-feasts for the members of the band societies shall be occasionally held in every place where it is practicable.

Q. 17. Is any regulation necessary respecting the annual examination of Preachers in our District Meetings?

A. Let it be clearly understood, that every Chairman is required to ask the following questions, distinctly and successively, concerning every brother; viz.

1. Is there any objection to his moral and religious character?
2. Does he believe and preach our Doctrines?
3. Has he duly observed and enforced our Discipline?
4. Has he competent Abilities for our Itinerant Work?—A separate answer to each of these questions is expected to appear in the District Minutes.

N. B. The inquiries concerning various branches of discipline, mentioned in the Answer to the 16th Question of our Minutes for 1811, are to be made annually by every Chairman, and the result reported to the Conference.

Q. 18. What further plan can we adopt to meet the increased expenses of our connexion, and relieve our financial affairs from their present embarrassment?

A. 1. Let every Superintendant exert himself to the uttermost, in order to raise in his Circuit the sum of one shilling, on the average, for each member for the yearly collection.

2. Let no more than twelve pounds be allowed in future, from our General Funds, towards the funeral expenses of any Preacher.

3. Let the allowance granted, in certain cases, towards the purchase of furniture for new Preachers' houses, be reduced to twenty pounds.

4. Let no Circuit be divided, nor any additional Preacher sent to any Circuit in future, until it has been distinctly proved, first, That there will be sufficient employment for all the Preachers who are sent; and, secondly, That the expense resulting from such an enlargement of the work, can be provided by the Circuits concerned.

5. Let it be seriously inquired, whether several Circuits which have hitherto had single Preachers appointed for them, ought not immediately to make provision for an additional married Preacher and his family.

6. We once more recommend most earnestly to all our Societies, a strict compliance with that original Rule, which Mr. Wesley established at the first institution of Methodism; and which requires, that, upon an average, each member shall pay, for the support of the work, one penny per week in the classes; and one shilling per quarter, in addition to the weekly contribution, at each renewal of the tickets. And that this important part of our financial economy may be more fully known and observed, let our old Rules on the subject be re-printed in every future edition of the Society-Rules.

Q. 19. How can we provide for the very large debt which is now owing by the Missionary Fund?

A. We are under the necessity of directing that an extraordinary Public Collection shall be made in every Circuit for that specific purpose in the month of January next, at latest.

N. B. 1. On account of this extraordinary collection for our Mission debt, there shall be no general collection for Chapels during the ensuing year, except in those Circuits in which the Chapels to be begged for are situated.

2. The regular Annual Collection for Missions is to be made in May, June, or July, 1813, as usual.

Q. 20. What new regulations are necessary on the subject of Missions?

A. 1. Let no Preacher be sent on any Foreign Mission unless he be first proposed to, and approved by, the Conference.

2. Let all our Missions be placed on the same plan, both as to government and pecuniary support.

3. Let the Committee make all such retrenchments in the different departments as may be found consistent with the glory and work of God.

4. Let a General Superintendant for the West India Missions be appointed; if a suitable person can be found who is willing to go out in that capacity; and be changed every two or three years as may be deemed best.

5. One general District Meeting shall be annually held in the Leeward and Windward Islands, in the month of April, in lieu of the three District Meetings which have been held there of late years. The power of this meeting, in the way of censure, shall not extend farther than to suspension. They shall form and transmit a plan of Stations, for the inspection and approbation, or rejection, in whole or in part, of the British Conference. And they are further expected to forward all possible information, on every point of importance connected with the Missions, to the Committee and the Conference.

N. B. A second Missionary may be sent to the Island of Jamaica, if Dr. Coke and the Missionary Committee shall unitedly deem it proper.

Miscellaneous Orders and Resolutions of the Conference.

1. Private application in behalf of the Preachers' Fund are to be made at the usual time in every Circuit. Those Circuits which are on the Missionary Plan are not to be exempted from this general rule.

2. The President of the Conference shall always be, ex officio, Chairman of the District, in which he is stationed, during the year of his presidency.

3. The Preachers, and others, who write to the President on public business, are expected to pay the postage of their letters.

4. The Stationing Committee are to assemble next year at nine o'clock in the morning of the Monday preceding the Conference.

5. Brother Marsden, Brother Waddy, and Brother Barker, are appointed to be the General Auditors of our accounts at the next Conference; and are directed to meet for that purpose on the Tuesday preceding the Conference.

6. Resolved, That the unanimous thanks of the Conference are due to the Committee, who have superintended the fitting up, and furnishing the Wesleyan Academy at Woodhouse-Grove, and prepared it for the purposes of education.

7. Resolved, That the particular thanks of the Conference are due to Mr. James Wood, the Chairman and Treasurer of the said Committee, for his very valuable and unwearied services to that institution.

8. Resolved, That the particular thanks of the Conference are also due to Mr. John Nelson, for his valuable services in superintending the necessary alterations, &c. in the buildings at Woodhouse-Grove.

9. An Address shall be prepared and published, expressing the deep sense which the Conference entertains of the liberality with which our friends in general have subscribed towards the purchase of the Wesleyan Academy; and requesting the continued exercise of that liberality at the usual annual collections in the month of October, in order to meet the united expenses incurred by the support of the two Establishments at Kingswood and at Woodhouse-Grove.

10. A list of the Preachers, who have already subscribed towards the purchase and fitting up of the new School, shall be again published; and those who have not subscribed are required to send a donation of one guinea, at least, as soon as possible.

11. It is agreed, That no Preacher shall have his Son admitted into either of our public Schools, whose subscription shall not have amounted to five guineas at least: but the deficiency, if any, may be made up by several easy instalments.

12. The Committee for Kingswood School, during the ensuing year, shall consist of the following persons, viz. Joseph Entwisle, Chairman and Treasurer; Thomas Stanley, Secretary; Thomas Kelk, Richard Treffry, Isaac Clayton, Thomas Taylor, Robert Johnson, John Ogilvie, and James Etchells.

13. The Committee for Woodhouse-Grove, during the ensuing year, shall consist of the following persons, viz. James Wood, Chairman and Treasurer; John Kershaw, Secretary; Charles Gloyne, George Morley, William Bramwell, John Nelson, Thomas Bartholomew, John Stamp, Jabez Bunting, Miles Martindale, Richard Waddy, James Buckley, William Radcliffe, and Thomas Fletcher, with Mr. Benjamin Sadler, of Leeds; Mr. Wm. Child, of Green-gates; Mr. John Ashworth, of Halifax; Mr. Fawcett, of Bradford; Mr. John Haley, of Bramley; and Mr. Holdsworth, of Wakefield.

N. B. Messrs. Wood, Bartholomew, Bunting, and Radcliffe, are appointed a Sub-Committee to examine the boys every quarter; to inquire minutely into the methods of instruction adopted; and to give such directions as they may judge expedient.

14. The following brethren are appointed a Committee to consider the affairs of the Preachers' Fund, viz. the President and Secretary, Thomas Taylor, James Wood, Samuel Bardsley, Francis Wrigley, Joseph Taylor, Henry Moore, John Barber, William Myles, Walter Griffith, Charles Atmore, George Highfield, James Bogie, Joseph Cole, Samuel Bradburn, John Gaulter, Jonathan Crowther, Timothy Crowther, Richard Reece, Jonathan Edmondson, Samuel Taylor, Thomas Bartholomew, John Braithwaite, John Stamp, John Riles, George Marsden, Richard Waddy, Jonathan Barker, Jabez Bunting, and the Representatives of the Irish Conference. 17. Resolved, That the most hearty and unanimous thanks of this Conference shall be presented to all the Members of our late Committee of Privileges, but most particularly to Mr. Butterworth and to Mr. Allan, for their indefatigable, successful, and gratuitous labours, to obtain that invaluable law, which has lately received the royal assent; and by which our religious liberties are confirmed and secured: and that the Letter from the Committee of Privileges to the Superintendants, on this interesting occasion, together with an appropriate Address from us to our Societies, shall be printed in our Minutes.

18. A complete and correct edition of all the Minutes of the Conference, from the year when they were first printed to the present time, shall be published in octavo: the edition to consist of two thousand copies, of which every Preacher is expected to purchase at least one.

Q. 21. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. At Liverpool, on the last Monday in July, 1813.

ADDRESSES.

The ADDRESS of the IRISH to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

WE unite with you in the most ardent wishes of Christian love, and unceasing prayers for the prosperity of our Sion. The success of the work of God amongst you, as well as the preservation of your religious privileges, are matters of real joy to us, inasmuch as we are one body, joined together by one spirit, and heirs of one common inheritance in glory by our Lord Jesus Christ.

Though we have frequently reflected with you on the painful event of the removal of that venerable man, who was indeed a centre of union to our Societies, yet, when we consider that he was not taken from us, until he had laid deep the foundation of our unity in the doctrines which are according to godliness, and in a wholesome and effective discipline; we rejoice, that so long as we are knit together in truth and love, in all fidelity to God and one another; nothing shall ever be able to violate our ministerial union with you, or that pure and confidential affection, by which the Preachers and Members of our Society are made one in Christ.

Amidst the innumerable difficulties which are connected with our Itinerancy, and the outrages which have of late alarmed and disgraced our country, the Lord hath upheld us, the hand of Omnipotence hath saved us. In our temporal affairs we have had most serious embarrassments, and by the scarcity of provisions, which affected the poor in general, we were in no small degree straitened; yet the Lord hath abounded to us in all spiritual blessings; nor can we forbear gratefully to acknowledge the generous and truly Christian liberality which hath also abounded to us, from our people, in the time of our necessity.—We sensibly felt the weight of your observations, respecting the improvement and mental refinement, both amongst our people, and not a few of our Preachers; yet, in considering the usefulness of the preaching of unlearned men, who have been both pious and zealous, and how far their usefulness has been affected by their want of human learning, we judge, that their usefulness was the result principally of their piety and zeal, and that equal piety and zeal would not have been less useful, though more favourably accompanied.

The Lord has signally favoured our Irish Missions this year, by opening new doors for exertion and usefulness. Especially in one place, a Missionary has penetrated into its wildest recesses, and has found not only a considerable patronage and protection from insult, but has had some fruit amongst the native Irish.—The Galway and Clare Missions, as also the Northern Missions, have been greatly acknowledged of God. The Cove of Cork Mission has been judged of the first moment, not only affording to the native inhabitants the means of instruction, but also affording to the sailors and soldiers, who resort from all parts of the world to that great naval and military station, an opportunity of hearing the word of eternal life. Viewing the Irish Missions in this light, we consider them as objects of primary importance in the great work of God among us; and we are confident, that if they be not supported by the usual means, a most serious evil must befall this country; but, Brethren, we are persuaded, that the best feelings of the United Kingdom will be engaged in their patronage and support.

We feel truly grateful for the re-appointment of our respected President, Dr. Clarke; however we cannot but express the deep regret we feel, occasioned by a recent measure adopted in your Conference, viz. “That the same man shall not be chosen President two years successively.” It is our judgment, dear Brethren, that this would considerably affect us, as, in case no President should be appointed from England, the Members of the Hundred in Ireland being so few, and many of them not effective men, we would in a short time, be laid under painful inconveniences. And, indeed, we do not conceive, that we have in such wise abused our right to ask a President from you, as to justify the adoption of such an exclusion of our claim. We therefore do, by a unanimous vote of this Conference, request a repeal of the measure. It also appears to us at present absolutely necessary, for the further security of our mutual confidence and well-being, as Members one of another, that the number of the Irish Preachers in the Hundred, as soon as conveniently may be, be augmented to Ten, which is less than an equal proportion and not less than we conceive indispensable.

It is our most cordial desire to cultivate with you the truest principles of union, and, therefore, not feeling inconvenienced by the limitation of the Presidency to the Members of the Hundred, we leave the choice of our President for the next ensuing Conference wholly with you, believing that you will make such an appointment as the great Head of the Church will himself ordain and sanctify.

We send with our respected Brother, the Rev. Adam Averell, as joint Representative, our Brother Matthew Tobias, whom we love much in the Lord; and pray, that their service among you may be blessed in Christ Jesus.

May grace and peace abound to you from him “who is God over all, blessed for ever!”

We are, beloved Fathers and Brethren,
Yours, in the bonds of the Gospel,

Signed in behalf of the Conference,

JAMES M'KOWN, Secretary.

The ADDRESS of the BRITISH CONFERENCE to the IRISH
CONFERENCE.

Beloved and respected Brethren,

WE thank you for your kind expressions of love and esteem for us. We most cordially wish, not only to preserve but to increase this spirit of union. Union with our great Living Head and all his Members, constitutes or implies the whole of Religion. But our ties of union with you, in and through our common and adorable Saviour, are of the strongest nature—not only as we are Ministers of the same everlasting Gospel, but as Fellow-labourers in the same department of our Lord's vineyard—as we agree not only in the essential but unessential points of our holy Religion, and as we love and enforce the same excellent modes of discipline which our late venerable Father in the Gospel was led of God to establish among us. We are therefore determined to act conjointly with you, in the strength of the Lord, and with all the ardour in our power, in spreading the glad tidings of Salvation through the united kingdom, and through the world.

For the further establishment of this blessed union, we readily comply with your request in respect to our Declaratory Deed. We have increased the number of Irish Members of the legal Conference to eight, and, as soon as convenient, shall raise them to ten, and keep up that number, as far as necessary, by regularly filling up the vacancies at every ensuing Conference.

The Irish Missions, since their first commencement, have lain very near to our hearts. The introduction and spread of vital religion among the Catholics of Ireland, is of the first importance to the British empire: and we shall be happy at all times to promote it as far as our finances will admit. And we cannot doubt but you, in an especial manner, lay yourselves out with all possible zeal for the enlargement of this important institution, by public collections universally through Ireland, and by private subscriptions wherever there is a probability of success. Such is the order of Divine Providence, who, not only in all spiritual concerns, but sometimes in those which are of a temporal nature, honours his Ministers, by making them necessary for the accomplishment of his gracious purposes in the formation and prosperity of his Church. We cannot too often—too perseveringly press upon ourselves and you the necessity of zeal, simplicity, and humility. Though we should be glad to promote true learning in all its branches, yet nothing can make amends for the want of these leading graces, without which no blessing can be expected from the Lord. We may have thousands hanging on our lips through the power of oratory and other improved natural gifts—we may be generally admired as speakers, and admire ourselves, without the conversion of a single soul. But the eternal happiness of one immortal spirit is infinitely more important than any thing which can possibly be done by the utmost stretch of merely natural talent. The salvation of souls is the work of God; and the humble Minister who walks with God, will be the only Instrument in general, that God will deign to use.

We are persuaded, dear and respected Brethren, that you do not imagine that we would for a moment speak against useful learning. A disinclination to study, and idleness in all its branches, we constantly oppose, and more especially in the admission of our Preachers. But we pray you (and we would also impress this upon ourselves) that you pursue learning only for the sake of souls; and that you sacrifice every thing of the kind, when opposed to the duties of the pastoral care. Remember always what our venerable Father, Mr. Wesley, has written in his Rules for his Helpers, and what we have all most solemnly engaged to observe, “You have nothing to do but to save souls.”

We cannot for a moment doubt, dear Brethren, but you hold all the Doctrines of the Gospel as our venerable Father taught them, not because Mr. Wesley taught them, but because they are perfectly consonant to the Law and the Testimony, by which alone we should be ultimately determined. But we would press upon you the necessity of bringing every point of Christian experience to the present now, according to the states of our people as penitents or believers. The great Doctrine of Salvation by Faith requires this.—Salvation is not by Faith, unless every blessing bestowed upon us by the Lord is instantaneous; and this Doctrine is perfectly consistent with the gradual work of Sanctification in all its branches, and in all its stages.

The appointment of our highly esteemed Brethren, the Messrs. Averell and Tobias, as your Representatives, has been highly grateful to us. The more we know them, the more we love and respect them.

We have unanimously appointed our much-respected Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Coke, to preside at your next annual Conference. You have long known his ardent zeal and indefatigable labours for the promotion of the cause of God, and are, therefore, fully prepared to receive him, not merely with the attention generally due to one who has our entire confidence and esteem, but with that particular affection, which his many former services to your body must have naturally inspired.—May he meet you, at the appointed season, in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Peace!

Before we conclude, we wish to observe, that we long laboured under various disabilities of a religious nature, which were inconsistent with the spirit of our excellent constitution, but our present Government has at length most liberally stepped forward in our behalf; and the Imperial Parliament has granted to us all the religious liberties we can reasonably desire. This glorious event should call forth our ardent thanks and gratitude to him who is Head over all things for the Church which is his Body, and should increase the ardour of our prayers, if possible, for the King, for the Prince Regent, and for his Majesty's Government, and the whole Legislative Body.

And now to God's holy care and keeping we recommend you, dearly beloved and highly respected Brethren. May the blessed Jesus ever rule your hearts, and protect you from every enemy: may the Holy Spirit overshadow you on all occasions: and may you and we meet the Great Shepherd of souls on the Day of Judgment with that humble boldness for which perfect love alone can, through grace, qualify and prepare us.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOSEPH ENTWISLE, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

Leeds, August 10, 1812.

ADDRESS OF THE PREACHERS,

Assembled at the Sixty-ninth Annual Conference, begun in Leeds, July 27, 1812, to the

MEMBERS OF THE METHODIST SOCIETIES,

FOUNDED BY THE LATE REV. JOHN WESLEY,

Beloved Brethren,

WE need not profess to you with what interest and anxiety we watch over the concerns of your souls, and whatever relates to your spiritual and moral condition. We know that in proportion as the grace of God abounds in you, will be the degree of your present happiness, and your meetness to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light. We can with truth say, that we live if you stand fast in the Lord; and our prayer is, that the Lord may make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you, to the end He may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his Saints. In furtherance of this blessed end we pretend not to have dominion over your Faith, but are helpers of your joy.

This being, as you well know, the great design of all our labours, and the object for which we are united with you in Christian Fellowship, we cannot but embrace the present opportunity of drawing your attention to Events, some of which are calculated to excite the most lively emotions of joy, and others to induce the most serious watchfulness and caution.

The various means of grace made use of amongst us, have ever been justly dear to all our People, and, by the gracious providence of God, have been enjoyed, without material interruption, from the first rise of our Societies, with that edification and comfort which they are so well adapted to promote. These religious privileges appear of late to have been in considerable danger, but, in consequence of a timely application to the Legislature, sanctioned and supported by his Majesty's Government, we have the satisfaction to inform you, that an Act of Parliament has passed which fully secures them to us, and will enable us to worship God and promote his Glory without fear, in that manner which we all so highly value. We need not here detail the particulars of this salutary Act, but shall refer you to the Circular Letter of the 31st of July last, relative to this subject, sent by the General Committee of Privileges to the Superintendants of Circuits, by which you will learn the danger to which our Societies and Economy were exposed, and the benefits which we are like to derive from this excellent Law.

In contemplating this measure we cannot but adore the goodness of God, who hath remembered us in our time of need, for His Mercy endureth for ever. But while we give the sole glory to that God, who is wonderful in counsel, and who maketh even the wrath of man to praise Him, we cannot but feel a debt of Gratitude due to those through whom such benefits have been dispensed; and we therefore most heartily concur in the sentiments which have been expressed by the General Committee of Privileges, relative to his Majesty's Ministers, and to those other exalted persons of both Houses of Parliament, whose liberality and enlightened policy have been so greatly manifested upon this important occasion. To them we doubt not you will feel the same gratitude, and we trust you will join with us in ardent Prayers for the welfare of those distinguished Characters and their Families, and for that Government by whose conciliating concurrence, and active exertions, this great measure has been produced. But this event calls for more than gratitude. If it does not impose fresh moral obligations, at any rate it strengthens our motives for obedience, and it should increase our alacrity in the path of duty. The well-known loyalty of our Societies, their dutiful attachment to their King and Country, and the simplicity and purity of their object in promoting their own salvation, and that of others, are certainly to be reckoned amongst the secondary causes which have produced such a favourable result. Let us then walk by the same rule; let us mind the same thing. And while we participate in the extension of our religious privileges with delight, let our advantages be improved in the cultivation of those loyal, humble, and pious dispositions, which inspire confidence in our principles, and at once make us happy in ourselves and useful amongst men.

Nor should we forget that this measure, while it enables our Local Preachers, and all classes of our Teachers, to exercise their abilities without restraint or fear, subjects them to great obligations to cultivate their talents in order to greater usefulness in their several spheres of action. In all who wish to do good, piety is essential, but the gift of God for edification is not to be neglected. Let him that teacheth or exhorteth, attend to the necessary qualifications of a Teacher, or Exhorter. Brethren, with such ample means of instruction, as are within your reach, let us say to you freely, "Be not children in understanding; howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be ye men." We trust you will see, that for the due improvement of the blessings thus secured, we are called upon by increased obligations at once to abound in love to God and man, and to cultivate the powers of the mind, that the truths of the Gospel may be published, under the influence of the Holy Spirit, with all the force of right words

We must now turn from the contemplation of the benefits with which we are favoured, to the consideration of a State of Society which has existed, and we fear still exists, in some of the northern counties. We look at the principles which have given birth to this state of things, with the utmost horror; principles which are alike destructive to the happiness of the poor and of the rich. And although we are well assured that our Societies are uncontaminated with that spirit of insubordination, violence, and cruelty, which has caused so much distress and misery, yet we cannot but dread the operation of its insidious and infectious nature, and the speciousness with which it aims to seduce the credulous and simple. We, therefore, as faithful Ministers, cannot refrain from sounding a solemn alarm, lest any of our dear people should be drawn away by the dissimulation of evil-disposed men. We proclaim loudly and earnestly, "Fear the Lord and the King; and meddle not with them that are given to change." Avoid them. Come not near them. Say of them, "O my soul, come not thou into their secret: unto their assembly, mine honour be not thou united." Destruction and misery are in their ways: and the way of peace have they not known. O Brethren, what would be our grief and distress if, after all our labours publickly, and from house to house, and after having, in the face of the world, vouched for your loyal, peaceable, and honest deportment, we should be deceived in any one of you. We can scarcely think this; but forgive our godly jealousy, and justify our expectations, and ye shall be the crown of our rejoicing when these times of delusion shall have passed away. We know well, and feel for, the situation of the poor, their want of employment, and the dearth of provisions: but murmuring and discontent will not alleviate their sufferings; they will rather aggravate them. Be ye therefore patient. Let the richer Brethren assist those who are poor; and let all hope and trust in Him, who hath said, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee;" and in due time you shall reap if you faint not.

Thus, dear Brethren, have we endeavoured to draw your serious attention to subjects with which the prosperity of our Societies is so intimately connected;—subjects which certainly furnish us with different motives for action, and call our graces into exercise in different directions, but which are both equally calculated to excite all the energies of the Christian character. We have received benefits; let us be grateful. Those benefits have been conferred with good will, and confidence in our integrity; let us receive them with satisfaction and affection. Our privileges are extended and secured; let us use them to the glory of God, and for promoting the happiness of our fellow creatures. A larger field of usefulness is open before us; let us cultivate it with diligence, with philanthropy, and an affectionate deportment towards all. Our exertions hitherto have had for their object the good of all men, and our Societies have embraced all who have been “willing to flee from the wrath to come;” and, instead of attempting merely to proselyte men to particular opinions, we have endeavoured to convert sinners from the error of their ways. Let us then, with the same disinterestedness, warn every man, and teach every man in all wisdom: that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. And as our boundaries are enlarged, and the numbers of our Societies are greatly increased, let us be more than ever attentive to the right performance of the duties which we owe to each other in the various relations of life; and, in order that we may be fully instructed in the nature and extent of those obligations, let us be diligent in the perusal of the Word of Life, which is able to make us wise unto Salvation; and fervent in prayer to Him who hath promised to make all Grace abound towards us, that we may be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We conclude in the words of the Circular Letter, to which we have already referred: “While on this memorable occasion, we express unfeigned gratitude to those who have rendered us assistance, let us not forget to give the sole glory to that God, ‘by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice:’ let us continue to cultivate the most affectionate regard for our KING and our COUNTRY: let us pray for more grace, that we may use our extended religious privileges to the greatest advantage, not only by provoking one another to love and to good works, but by labouring incessantly to diffuse those sacred truths of our most holy Religion, which we have long proved to be the power of God unto Salvation, to every one that believeth; and thus promote GLORY to GOD in the HIGHEST, and on Earth PEACE and GOOD-WILL among MEN,—the great ENDS for which our Societies have been established.”

Signed on behalf, and by order of, the Conference,

JOSEPH ENTWISLE, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

TO THE SUPERINTENDANTS OF CIRCUITS.

Dear Sir,

IN May last the General Committee of Privileges addressed a circular Letter to the Superintendants of Circuits, with a view to allay the apprehensions of the people, under the circumstances in which they were then placed from the new construction of the Toleration Act; and to assure them that no time would be lost in taking such measures as were likely to promote the success of an application to the Legislature for relief; and they, at the same time, inclosed the copy of a Letter from the late Mr. Perceval, (published with his permission,) in which he promised to bring forward or to support such an application to Parliament:—but the melancholy death of that lamented statesman, put an end, for some time, to the correspondence with Government upon the subject.

The Committee being of opinion that a measure of this nature and magnitude, ought to originate with his Majesty's government, (whoever might be in office for the time being,) solicited no individual member of the legislature on the subject, but waited till an administration was appointed; when this was done, the Committee lost no time in addressing the Right Hon. the Earl of Liverpool: and, after the necessary communications, a Bill was introduced into Parliament under his Lordship's auspices, which, to our inexpressible satisfaction has now passed into a law.

In order to understand the bearings and effect of this important and salutary Act of Parliament, and before we make any general remarks, it may be necessary to advert to the situation in which our Societies were placed, and to some of the proceedings of the Committee for the purpose of accomplishing the object they had in view.

By the CONVENTICLE ACT, (22 Charles II. c. 1,) it was enacted, that if any person of sixteen years of age and upwards, should be present at any conventicle or meeting for religion, other than according to the liturgy and practice of the Church of England, at which should be present above five persons besides those of the same household, he should pay a fine of five shillings for the first offence, and ten shillings for every subsequent offence; which penalties might, in case of the poverty of an offender, be levied on the goods and chattels of any person present. Every person who should teach or preach at such conventicle or meeting, should forfeit twenty pounds for the first offence; and forty pounds for every subsequent offence. Every person who should suffer any such conventicle or meeting in his house or premises, should forfeit twenty pounds, which, in case of his poverty, might be levied upon the goods of any person present. The justices and the military were empowered to enter conventicles, and disperse religious meetings. And the Act declares the principle (most severe and intolerant) upon which it is to be interpreted, namely: “That it shall be construed most largely and beneficially for the suppressing of conventicles, and for the justification and encouragement of all persons to be employed in the execution thereof;” and that no record, warrant, or mittimus to be made by virtue of that Act, or any proceedings thereupon, should be reversed, avoided, or any way impeached, by reason of any default in form ! It was also declared, that the goods and chattels of the husband should be liable for the penalties incurred by the wife for attending a meeting for religious worship.

As to the FIVE MILE ACT, (17 Charles II. c. 2,) it is thereby declared, that persons therein mentioned who should preach in any conventicle, should not come within five miles of any corporate town sending burgesses to Parliament, unless in passing upon the road, before such person shall have taken the oath therein-mentioned at the Quarter Sessions, under a penalty of forty pounds.

Besides these two Acts of Parliament, there were several other Acts which rendered nonconformity, or a deviation from the established religion of the country, unlawful and highly penal.

Thus stood the law relative to religious assemblies on the accession of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, when, or soon afterwards, an Act of Parliament was passed for the relief of conscientious persons, suffering under, or exposed to, those intolerant and oppressive laws. By that Act (1 William and Mary, c. 18.) usually called the TOLERATION ACT, it was in substance declared, that with regard to private individuals, the former Acts should not extend to any person dissenting from the Church of England, who should at the Sessions take the Oaths, and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned; and with regard to the ministers of religion, it was enacted that no person dissenting from the Church of England, in Holy Orders, or pretended Holy Orders, or pretending to Holy Orders, nor any preacher or teacher of any congregation of dissenting Protestants, who should at the Sessions make the Declaration and take the Oaths therein expressed, should be liable to the penalties of the Acts of Parliament therein mentioned. Provided that such person should not at any time preach in any place with the doors locked, barred, or bolted. By this Act also, a justice was empowered at any time to require any person that went to any meeting for the exercise of religious worship, to subscribe the Declaration and take the Oaths therein mentioned: and in case of refusal, to commit such person to prison. And the ministers of religion having taken the Oaths under the Act, were exempt from certain offices. It was declared, that no assembly for religious worship should be allowed till registered. And disturbers of religious worship coming into a registered place, were subjected to the penalty of twenty pounds. There are other provisions in the Act, which it may be unnecessary to mention; nor need we particularize the STATUTE of the 10th of Queen ANNE, c. 2, which extends the liberty of a person having taken the Oaths in one county, to preach in another county; nor the STATUTE of the 19th of GEORGE III. which regulates the Oaths and Declaration to be made, and extends the exemptions.

You will perceive, that it was only by the operation of these last Acts, that any Protestant, not resorting to the established church, could be protected from the antecedent penal statutes; and in proportion as the construction of these Tolerating Acts was limited, would be the destructive operation of those penal statutes. However, these Acts were considered by the various classes of Dissenters as the Palladium of their religious liberty; and their efficacy for the protection of the various classes of Dissenters was never questioned till very lately; and all who believed it their duty to preach the religious doctrines which they held, and were inclined to protect themselves from the penalties of former Acts, found little difficulty in getting the magistrates at the Sessions to administer the Oaths, &c. as it was the generally received doctrine, that the magistrates acted merely ministerially—that they had no authority to inquire into the fitness or character of the applicant—and could not refuse the oaths, &c. to any one who represented himself in Holy Orders, or pretended Holy Orders, or as pretending to Holy Orders; or as being a teacher or preacher of a congregation dissenting from the Church of England; and it was thought, that there could scarcely be any dissenting teacher of religion who could not properly consider himself as falling within one of the above descriptions. But latterly there has been a manifest alteration in the conduct of many magistrates, who, by narrowing the construction of the Toleration Act, have, on many alleged reasons, refused the oaths, &c. to several applicants. The new construction of the magistrates, has in some points of very great importance to the religious nonconformists, or occasional conformists, been sanctioned by the Court of King's Bench, which held, that a man to entitle himself to take the oaths, &c. as required by the Act of Toleration, ought to shew himself to be the acknowledged teacher or preacher of some particular congregation, and that it was not enough for a man to state himself a Protestant Dissenter, who preached to several congregations of Protestant Dissenters. And with regard to persons pretending to Holy Orders, the decision of the Court left us in great uncertainty.

In this state of perplexity, with regard to what was to be the construction of the Toleration Act, or rather of probability that it would afford but a very insufficient protection for the Methodists, even if they could denominate themselves Dissenters, the Committee were under the necessity of deeply considering the situation of the whole body. But when they were constantly receiving intelligence from various parts of the country, of the appearance of a new spirit of hostility to the preachers, and of persecution against the harmless members of their societies, by enforcing the penalties of the most odious of obsolete laws upon the persons of the poor and defenceless, the Committee were exceedingly alarmed. For although they admired, and have experienced the benefit of the pure and impartial administration of justice, for which this country is so celebrated, yet they could not but consider the state of the Societies with apprehension, when they saw the press teeming with the grossest slander and falsehood against them; their religious practices traduced and vilified; and they themselves represented as "vermin fit only to be destroyed." Had such representations been casual, they would have been disregarded; but when they were reiterated in certain popular Publications month after month, and one quarter of a year after another—when the legislature were loudly and repeatedly called upon to adopt measures of coercion against them, under the pretence that evangelical religion was inimical to public security and morals, and, as they saw, that in unison with this spirit, there seemed a growing disposition in many to enforce the penalties of the Conventicle Act, upon those who either had not taken the oaths, or could not take them, or were not permitted to take them, &c. under the Toleration Act, the Committee were under the greatest apprehension that the Societies were about to be deprived of that liberty to worship God which, either under the law, or by the courtesy of the country, they had enjoyed from their first rise nearly a century ago. And their fears were far from being allayed by the intelligence which thickened upon them, and they became furnished with a mass of incontrovertible evidence from different parts of the country, which shewed that, even if the members of our Societies were to be considered as Dissenters, (which they have always disclaimed,) it would be utterly impossible to get protection under the Toleration Acts for our Preachers and Teachers, especially for the Local Preachers, Class Leaders, &c. &c.

These various Teachers are absolutely necessary for our economy, and without them we knew that our Societies and religious customs could not be carried on. They had, it is true, been tolerated by the general consent of the country, rather than protected by the law; but this had with almost equal efficacy secured the free exercise of their religious privileges.

However, as a bitter spirit of intolerance was thus manifesting itself, the Committee thought it in vain to contend for protection under acts of parliament which were of uncertain interpretation as to Dissenters, but of no value to those who considered themselves as belonging to the Church of England, of which class the great bulk of our Societies is composed the Committee; therefore determined to submit their case to the Government, and to Parliament: and to solicit the adoption of such a measure as would secure to the Methodist Societies, and to other denominations of Christians suffering with them, the free exercise of their religious rights and privileges.

It now became necessary for the Committee deeply and critically to consider the situation and principles of the Societies, in order to adapt a measure for their relief, which they might submit to his Majesty's ministers for their support in parliament. In doing this, the Committee could not forget that the Societies are mere associations of Christians, united for general improvement and edification; and, as the great majority of them were, from religious principle, attached to the Church of England, they could not conscientiously take the oaths as Dissenters,—to whom, alone, the Act of Toleration applied. Therefore no amendment of that act appeared likely to answer the purpose.—But, as Dissenters of various denominations were also to be contemplated in the projected measure, it became necessary to proceed on some principle common to all: a principle which should recognize the rights of conscience, and at the same time afford that security for peaceable and loyal conduct, which the government of any state has a right to expect. It appeared also material to avoid all phraseology which would be exclusively applicable to any one sect of religious people.

As to the principle, the Committee, at an early stage of their deliberations, came to the resolution, that, although all well-regulated societies, and denominations of Christians, will exercise their own rules for the admission of public or private teachers among themselves, yet it is the unalienable right of every man to worship God agreeably to the dictates of his own conscience; and that he has a right to HEAR and to TEACH those Christian truths which he conscientiously believes, without any restraint or judicial interference from the civil magistrate, provided he do not thereby disturb the peace of the community; and that on no account whatever would the Committee concede this fundamental principle.

You will see at once, that it is only on this legitimate principle, that the various members of our Societies, and indeed mankind in general, have any right to teach and instruct one another. It was on this leading principle, that we drew up and submitted a Bill to the late Mr. Perceval, qualified however with those provisions which made our religious worship known, and laid it open for the inspection of all; and left our teachers subject to be called upon to take the usual obligations of allegiance, &c. which no good man could object to; and which, by the Constitution, no subject can lawfully refuse; but, at the same time, provision was made, that those Oaths were not to be taken as an antecedent qualification, but when required, they were to be taken with the least possible inconvenience, by going before one neighbouring magistrate, instead of the Quarter Sessions. A Bill founded on such principles, and with such views, the Committee trusted would at once secure the rights of conscience, and give every needful pledge to the State, for the fulfilment of our duties as good subjects. And although they did not attempt to amend the Act of Toleration, which had now become so uncertain in its construction, but only suggested a new Act, adapted to the present state of religious Society; yet they did not wish to remove the Old Toleration Act, or lessen any of the benefits to be derived from it, by any class of Christians.

On these principles, and with a view to establish them in practice, the correspondence with the Earl of Liverpool was conducted; and we have the greatest satisfaction to say, that from a just sense of the high importance of those principles, which have been so powerful in the establishment and support of the Protestant Church, and the preservation of civil order in this country; and which are so congenial with every dictate of sound policy, and pure religion, his Lordship and his Majesty's Ministers prepared a Bill, which having now passed into a law, will be found to carry into effect what the Committee deemed so essential, in any measure designed to meet the situation of the Methodist Societies, and other denominations of Christians. To a short sketch of this Act, we have now to request your attention; but for full information we must refer you to the Act itself.

The new Act absolutely repeals the Five Mile and the Conventicle Acts, and another Act of a most offensive kind, which affected a highly respectable body, the Quakers. It then proceeds to relieve from the penalties of the several Acts mentioned in the Toleration Act, or any amendment of the same, all Protestants who resort to a congregation allowed by the Acts there referred to: and you will not fail to observe, that while it meets the situation of the Dissenters, how liberally it treats the condition of our Societies. It is not now necessary that a person should be obliged to relinquish his attachment to the Established Church, in order to bring himself under the protection afforded by this Act: and, on the other hand, if he be a Dissenter, he is protected by this Bill. The simple condition of protection is, that a Protestant do resort to some place of worship, which if not the only way, is at least the usual and overt manner of shewing our belief in the existence of the Deity, and in a future state of retribution; without which there is no security for the peace and happiness of society. To our Societies, this feature of the Act is of great importance, because it allows our members to continue their attachment to the Established Church, without relinquishing the privileges which the christian communion of our Societies so largely affords : as under the Toleration Act, so under this Act, all places of worship must be certified to the proper Court ; but under this Act a Preacher need not wait till the place be registered before he preaches. By the former Acts only five persons could meet together, besides a man's own family, without having the place registered ; by this Act, the number is extended to twenty persons, who may meet without certifying the place of meeting. By the former Act, no person could preach till he had taken the Oaths ; by this Act, any person may preach without having taken the Oaths : and is merely liable to be called on once to take them afterwards, if required in writing by one Justice. By the Toleration Acts, persons were obliged to go to the Quarter Sessions to take the Oaths ; by this Act any person may take them before one Justice only ; and in no case, is such person compellable to travel above five miles for that purpose ; so that it will be perfectly unnecessary for any of our Preachers or Teachers to take the Oaths until they are required by a Justice, unless our travelling Preachers, who carry on no business, and intend to claim exemption from civil and military duties. By the new construction of the Toleration Act, it appeared that only particular persons could insist upon taking the Oaths, &c. by this Act any Protestant, whether preacher or otherwise, whether a Dissenter or a Member of the Church of England, may require a Justice to administer the Oaths, &c. and grant a Certificate.

As to the exemptions from civil and military duties, they are nearly the same as to Preachers carrying on no business, except that the Toleration Act extended only to Dissenters, and this Act includes all Preachers whether Dissenters or not. As by the Toleration Act, so by this, the doors of all places of worship are to be unlocked. In this Act you will observe a great and most beneficial alteration for the protection of religious assemblies. The Toleration Act did not provide for the punishment of riotous persons who did not come into the house, by which means many of our congregations were greatly disturbed by noises made on the outside ; but, by this Act, any person who shall wilfully and maliciously disturb a Congregation, (whether by coming into or being on the outside of the house) shall incur a penalty of 40*l.* which penalty is double the amount of that imposed for the same offence by the Toleration Act. There is also another important advantage in this Act, which is, that the writ of Certiorari is not taken away, by which means, proceedings may be removed into the Court of King's Bench.

Thus have we endeavoured to give you an outline of this important Act of the Legislature ; an Act which clearly recognises in practice, those great principles which are the basis of religious freedom, and in its operation will not only enable our Societies to exercise, under the protection of the law, those privileges which they have ever considered the most sacred and invaluable, and which, under the Divine blessing, have contributed to the consolation of thousands; but it will serve for the extension of piety and virtue amongst all denominations, by promoting Christian fellowship, the dissemination of Divine truth, and the interchange of religious instruction. And while it amply extends the circle of religious liberty to those who dissent from, or who only partially or occasionally conform to, the Established Church, as well as to strict members of her communion, who wish to enjoy religious meetings, it will excite attachment to, and encrease the security of, that church, which has produced so many champions for the verities of our holy religion, and in which indeed, our Societies have been founded.

Nor should it be forgotten, (especially in times like the present), that this Act is of peculiar excellency, from the effect it will have upon the happiness of the religious poor. They value exceedingly the liberty of associating for mutual religious instruction and consolation. It is the exercise of that privilege which soothes them under poverty and distress, and, by the grace of God, makes them content under the apparently adverse dispensations of Divine Providence; and teaches them to wait with patience for the “inheritance which is incorruptible.” This Act, by removing all restraint from the performance of the great duty of “exhorting one another,” may be considered as having the well-disposed and pious poor for its object, and great will be their gratitude and gladness, that they can, under the protection of this law, worship God in their own way, and instruct each other, as well as hear those Ministers whose labours they esteem. And while it has this effect upon their individual happiness, it will make them value the Constitution of the Country, through which they derive such benefits. In short, the Committee cannot but contemplate this important extension of religious freedom, with the highest satisfaction and delight; and they cannot doubt, that in proportion to the apparent excellency of this Act of Parliament, will be the magnitude of the benefits which the nation at large will derive from it.

In the accomplishment of this salutary measure, the Committee have necessarily had much correspondence with the Prime Minister, the Right Hon. the Earl of Liverpool: and it is a duty they owe to his Majesty’s Government, and to that noble Lord in particular, to express with pleasure and gratitude the high sense of the obligations they feel themselves under, for the patient attention which his Lordship has given to the many and necessary representations of the Committee, as well as the readiness manifested to meet fully, the situation of our Societies, and of other religious denominations; and for the cordiality with which his Lordship matured and supported the Bill in Parliament, which appears to be commensurate to the present necessities and wishes of our Societies.

The Committee are also under considerable obligations to His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, for his polite attention to the subject, and for the liberal sentiments expressed by his Grace on various occasions: and we cannot but feel great gratitude to all the Right Reverend Prelates who concurred in the Bill, without whose concurrence, it must have met with considerable difficulties in its progress through Parliament.

It is also the duty of the Committee to express their humble thanks to the rest of the Cabinet Ministers, for the support which this measure has received from them, and particularly to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor, for his Lordship's candid and liberal attention to the Bill, in the House of Lords; and also to the Right Hon. Viscount Castlereagh, for the labour of conducting it in the House of Commons. In these sentiments of respect and gratitude, we are sure we shall be joined by you, and our Societies universally.

The Committee are happy to inform you, to whom they are under particular obligations, on this important occasion, that you may have the pleasure of participating with them in those sentiments which the sense of benefits received naturally inspires. They will, therefore, mention, that they are greatly indebted to the Right Hon. Earl Stanhope, to the Right Hon. Lord Holland, and to the Right Hon. Lord Erskine, for their attention and support in the House of Peers; and to William Wilberforce, Esq. James Stephen, Esq. Samuel Whitbread, Esq. and Thomas Babington, Esq. Members of the House of Commons, from each of whom the Committee have derived important services relative to this valuable Act.

While endeavouring to express our gratitude upon this occasion, rather than pretending to discharge the debt which we owe to the distinguished characters we have mentioned, it is with great satisfaction that we acknowledge the co-operation which we have experienced from "The Protestant Society for the Protection of Religious Liberty," who represent the great body of Dissenters in this country, and from our affectionate friends the Quakers, with whom, as well as with other denominations of Christians, we are happy to be associated in receiving benefit in the same friendly Act of the Legislature; we are sure this co-operation will increase your esteem for those respectable members of civil and religious society.

In considering the many circumstances relative to the progress and completion of this excellent measure, we cannot but adore the providence and goodness of God, without whose direction and aid the work could not have been accomplished. And we would ascribe the glory, the honour, and power to Him, from whom alone all good councils and all just works do proceed. Our joy is great upon this interesting occasion ; but how greatly would our pleasure have been enhanced, had this event witnessed the return of health to our gracious Sovereign, whose name must ever be associated with Religious Toleration : for his Majesty, in his first speech from the Throne, declared it his invariable resolution to maintain the Toleration inviolate.—A declaration which has been religiously fulfilled during a long and beneficent reign. And should it please Divine Providence to restore his Majesty in health to his affectionate people, it would, we doubt not, afford him the highest gratification that a measure so full of regard to the sacred rights of conscience, and so amply extending the bounds of Toleration, had been carried into effect under the liberal administration of his Royal Highness the Prince Regent. May it please God to smooth the bed of the Sovereign in his affliction, and endue the Prince plenteously with heavenly gifts, and prosper him with all happiness.

To conclude: while on this memorable occasion, we express unfeigned gratitude to those who have rendered us assistance, let us not forget to give the sole glory to that God “ by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice,” let us continue to cultivate the most affectionate regard for our King and our Country: let us pray for more grace, that we may use our extended religious privileges to the greatest advantage, not only by provoking one another to love and to good works, but by labouring incessantly to diffuse those sacred truths of our most holy Religion, which we have long proved to be the power of God unto Salvation, to them who believe ; and thus promote Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth peace, and good-will among Men,—the great END for which our Societies have been established.

We are, dear Sir,

Your affectionate Friends and Servants,

Signed by Order and on Behalf of the Committee,

ADAM CLARKE, Chairman.

JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH, Secretary.

London, July 31, 1812.

Charles the Second herein-before repealed, relating to the people called Quakers, or relating to any Assemblies or Meetings for Religious Worship held by them.

Q. 4. What Preachers have died this year ?

A. 1. George Snowden, who travelled upwards of forty years with considerable approbation and usefulness. During the three or four last years, through indisposition, he remitted his ministerial labours. Towards the close of his life especially, he expressed himself as having confidence in the mercy of God through the only merits of Jesus Christ. In the exercise of fervent prayer to God for his relatives, for those who surrounded his bed, for the Methodist connexion in particular, for the Church of Christ in general, and for the whole world, he put off the harness at Macclesfield, in August, 1812, and in the 75th year of his age, in full expectation of entering into that, "rest which remaineth for the people of God."

2. Edward Green. He was a truly excellent, devout, and zealous young man. He travelled eight years with great acceptance and general usefulness. His talents as a Minister were held in high estimation, and if the Providence of God had prolonged his valuable life, there is every reason to conclude he would have ranked among the most distinguished Ministers of Jesus Christ. His death was happy. The last moments of his short but useful life were spent in expressing his confidence in the Redeemer, and rejoicing in God his Saviour. He died in Liverpool, August 29, 1812, aged 28 years.

3. George Warren. He became acquainted with himself, and with the Saviour of mankind, at an early period of life. From a child he knew the Holy Scriptures, and experienced them to be the power of God unto salvation. He also began early to make known to mankind the things of God, an employment of which he never grew weary. After labouring for several years as a Local Preacher, with credit to himself and profit to others, in the year 1811, he conceived an ardent desire to go to Africa, and proposed to serve, in the gospel of Christ, the Society at Sierra Leone. His proposal was accepted, and he was sent thither by the Conference. He laboured there about one year without suffering any material injury from the climate till his last illness. Too confident, from the uninterrupted health which he enjoyed, he laboured even more than would perhaps have been prudent even in his native country. The Lord blessed his labours, so that the congregation and society increased, and many souls were awakened and converted under his ministry. His death was sudden, and must, on that account, have been afflictive to his friends, but that his constant walk with God, and his deep communion with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ, were evident to all who knew him.

4. James Watson, in the Bath circuit, a man of genuine piety, great seriousness, and integrity. He was regularly employed as a Preacher among us for twenty-eight years, when, through great bodily debility, he was compelled to desist from travelling. For the last fifteen years of his life he resided in the city of Bath, during which period his sufferings were often very acute. He finished his course with pious confidence in the Lord, Feb. 15, 1813, and in the 66th year of his age.

5. John Easton, in the Shepton Mallet circuit. He was born at Beltoft, near Epworth, in Lincolnshire. Early in life he sought the Lord, and found him. Being converted to God himself, the love of Christ constrained him to do what he could for the salvation of his neighbours. Having joined our society, and been employed for a time both as a Class-leader and Local Preacher, he was called to act in a larger sphere, and to give himself wholly to the work of the ministry. After he had travelled nearly thirty-four years in our connexion, with an unblemished character and ministerial success, the sciatica, with which he was afflicted, obliged him to desist; but being desirous to do all the good in his power, when he was superannuated, he frequently visited the adjacent circuits in the summer, with the assistance of friends, and edified the churches by his preaching, conversation, and behaviour. He was naturally of a timid disposition, and from the beginning to the end of his Christian course he was often grievously tempted by the enemy of souls. For many years also before he died he was almost a stranger to bodily ease, both day and night: nevertheless, he was generally cheerful in company, and seldom complained. His love for his brethren in the ministry, and to the cause in which they are engaged, was sincere, fervent, and lasting as his life. Even when his mental faculties were considerably impaired, they and their work were his principal and delightful themes. In his dress he was remarkably neat, and of his time he was very economical. He rose early, read his bible attentively, and visited the sick diligently. His talents, as a Preacher, were rather useful than popular. He conscientiously believed our doctrines, steadily adhered to our discipline, and, as long as he was able, punctually attended to his appointments. A little before his death, he said to a friend, "What a mercy! I have not a doubt on my mind; for my Master, whom I have served so many years, is with me even to the end."—He finished his labours and sufferings, March, 1813, in the 80th year of his age.

6. David Mailen. He was a man of amiable temper and deep piety, and very useful as a Leader and Local Preacher. By the unanimous vote of the March Quarterly Meeting of the circuit where he resided, in 1812, he was recommended to the Conference as a proper person to be received as an Itinerant Preacher. He was appointed by the last Conference to the Hertford Mission, where he laboured with great diligence till he was taken ill with the measles, and, after a few days confinement, he died very happy in God on the 3d of March.

7. Joseph Harper, who began his itinerant labours in the year 1767, and continued them till 1801, with an unblemished character. While he had strength to labour, he did the work of the Lord faithfully, and evinced a deadness to the world suited to the sacred office which he filled as a Methodist Preacher. Twelve years ago, on account of his bodily infirmities, he became a Supernumerary Preacher in the Wetherby circuit, where he continued to labour according to his strength. The last time he preached, his text was Heb. vii. 25, at which time it was thought, by several friends who heard him, that he preached with more freedom and heavenly energy, than they had ever heard him at any former time. The Tuesday following he had a paralytic attack, which entirely deprived him of the use of his speech, though he survived the stroke above three weeks. He died in the 84th year of his age.

8. William Williams, a man of real piety, and more than ordinary talents, and of great usefulness in the Church of Christ, whose loss will be deeply deplored by all who knew him. He began his itinerant ministerial labours in the year 1796, as a true ambassador of Christ, impressed with a deep sense of the importance of the work, and having a full determination to spend and to be spent for the glory of his Lord.—He had counted the cost, and entered on his course like one fully prepared by his Lord, and fulfilled it with a zeal and wisdom, well calculated to convince careless sinners, and awaken them to a sense of their danger—to instruct and encourage penitents—to strengthen and build up real Christians in their most holy Faith, and to silence and confound those gainsayers, who would not yield to conviction; and also to keep whole, and even undefaced the walls of discipline, which enclose the flock of Christ, to which he was always attentive. To whatever circuit he was appointed, he went with cheerfulness, and the Lord greatly owned his labours to the instruction, conversion, and consolation of many, who will be his crown of rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus. He was particularly attentive to the ministerial improvement of his junior colleagues, his large and valuable mental stores were always at their service, and several of them have acknowledged with gratitude to God, the advantage which they have derived from his kind and intelligent conversation. He bore his last illness with patience and confidence in God, and had much of the presence of God towards the close. His last words were, “Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly! Even so, Lord Jesus! Amen.” and soon after, he breathed his last, without either a sigh or a groan. He was a man of a strong understanding, and of a clear and sound judgment, especially in the word of God. His elocution was clear and manly, and all his exertions in and out of the pulpit were directed only to the glory of God in the salvation of men. He was affectionate and steady in his friendship, and sincere in all his attachments: in a word, he was a man of God, fully furnished for every good work while on earth, and he is now with his Lord, enjoying him whom unseen he loved.

9. Lawrence Hargrave, a young man of genuine piety, zealous and indefatigable in the discharge of his duty, as a Christian minister, diligent in the pursuit of useful knowledge, and ready to every good work. A typhus fever put a period to his mortal existence, after a confinement of twenty-five days. During the whole of his affliction he was happy and resigned to the will of God, and whenever he was asked the state of his mind, he always replied in the language of confidence and gratitude. Some of his last words were those of prayer and praise. He died on the 10th of April, and was interred on the 12th in the chapel-yard at Pad-diham, amidst the tears of a large concourse of people collected from every part of the circuit. Our loss is his gain.

10. Richard Elliott. He commenced his itinerant labours in the year 1790. For thirteen years he travelled with a good character and considerable usefulness, when he left the work of an Itinerant, and settled in Huddersfield, as a druggist, where he laboured six years as a Local Preacher. Weary, at length, of this method of spending his time, he gave up his business and returned to the work of the Lord. The Conference at Manchester, 1809, received him in much love.---He travelled three years, during the last of which he suffered much from a complication of disorders. A fever, superinduced, terminated his valuable life, on the 7th of July, 1813, in the 45th year of his age. During the last week of his confinement, he was in general delirious, but death did not take him by surprise. His faith in a crucified Saviour was steadfast, and its blessed effects were manifest. As a Divine he was plain and judicious, and his striking and affecting manner of preaching, secured him very great attention. But his highest glory was, the abundance of fruit which crowned his labours. For a more full account of him we refer to the Methodist Magazine, for December, 1796.

11. William Driver, was of a humble and teachable disposition. He acted in the capacity of a Local Preacher in the Shrewsbury circuit, where he had some fruit of his labours. His zeal for the salvation of souls, induced him to offer himself as a Missionary Preacher for the West Indies. He laboured for some time with success upon the island of St. Kitt's; and removed from thence to St. Eustatius, where he preached for the first and last time from Rom. i. 16, to a large congregation. After preaching he complained of a pain in his head. A fever ensued, and medical aid was called in, but in vain. A little before he expired, he was asked the state of his mind. His answer was, "All is well, yes, all is well," and expired in the 40th year of his age, and in the 2d of his itinerant labours.

12. John Wilson, a man of piety and genuine simplicity. He travelled more than twelve years; but was, by domestic circumstances, obliged to retire from the work of the ministry about a year before he died. Early in his illness he had a conviction that it was unto death; but being filled with a joyful assurance and triumphant hope, the approach of death had no terror. When visited by his physician, he spoke delightfully of the comforts he enjoyed in the Lord, and zealously recommended the same salvation to him. Then, in great peace, and with a holy joy, he departed this life to be with Christ, on the 5th of January, 1813.

Sandys, of Helstone; and William Carne, Esq. of Penzance.

Q. 14. What measures can we adopt, to extricate our Connexion from its present heavy debt, and to make the ordinary Income of our General Fund more equal to the regular expenditure?

A. 1. A Circular Letter shall be sent to the Trustees of all our Chapels, requesting such assistance from their respective Trust-Concerns, as they may be able to afford. The Superintendants of Circuits are directed to deliver copies of this Letter to the Trustees, and to take immediate measures for accomplishing its object as effectually as possible.

2. A Public Collection shall be made in all our Congregations, towards the reduction of the debt, in the month of February next at latest.

3. On account of this Extraordinary Collection, no Collections for Chapels can be allowed this year, except in the Circuits, in which the Chapels are situated.

4. Married Preachers are to be stationed, in future, in all the Circuits in proportion to the numbers in Society.

5. No additional Single Preacher can be sent, in future, to any Circuit, unless such Circuit engage to support an additional Married Preacher, instead of the Single Preacher, at the end of four years at the latest.

6. A Circular Letter shall be sent to the Stewards throughout the Connexion, requesting them to exert themselves, in conjunction with the Leaders of their respective Circuits and Societies, in order to bear, as far as possible, all their own expenses, and to provide for their full share of the general burden.

7. A short Tract shall be drawn up by the President, and extensively circulated among our people, stating the duty of Christian Societies, to support their Ministers and their Families.

8. It is again ordered, that our old Rules, which direct, That every Society shall raise, on the average, at least, One Penny per Week, and One Shilling per Quarter, for each of its members, shall be printed in every future edition of the Society Rules.

9. The Sums contributed in every Circuit towards the Yearly Collection shall be distinctly reported in full Conference, according to our ancient usage, and compared with the sums contributed in the preceding year.

10. Our Friends, who may contemplate, in future, the erection of new Chapels, are earnestly entreated to inquire, before any decisive step be taken, whether, by the building of such Chapels, an additional Travelling Preacher will not be necessary; and whether, in that case, they can support him out of the funds of the Chapel, or of their own Circuit,

11. The Chairmen of Districts are ordered to inquire, at the next District Meetings, what employment there is, both on the Lord's Days and on other days, for the Preachers of every Circuit, in their respective Districts, and to report the result of such inquiries in their District Minutes.

12. In order to prevent an unnecessary increase of Preachers, and that the Conference may make the best selection out of such young men, as are annually recommended to travel, it is agreed, that the Stationing Committee shall only station, in their preparatory plan, such Preachers as they find on the Minutes of the preceding year.

13. All proposals for employing an additional Preacher in any Circuit, shall be considered and allowed in full Conference, before such Preacher be entered on the Plan of Stations.

14. The Stationing Committee are allowed to adopt provisionally, into their plan, all those proposed divisions of Circuits, which are sanctioned by the District Meetings, in order that suitable Superintendants may be found for the new Circuits; but such proposed Divisions shall be brought before the Conference by a Special Report, and allowed or rejected, before the stations are considered.

Q. 15. What is the judgment of the Conference concerning the proposal of a Methodist Mission to the East?

A. The Conference authorizes and appoints Dr. Coke, to undertake a Mission to Ceylon and Java; and allows him to take with him six Preachers for that purpose, exclusively of one for the Cape of Good Hope.

Q. 16. Are any admonitions necessary respecting our discipline?

A. 1. Let our Preachers meet the Societies every Lord's Day, if possible, wherever they preach.

2. Let them be careful to see, that the Members shew their Tickets regularly, before their admission either to Love-feasts, Society-meetings, or Sacramental services.

3. Let the numbers of those who meet in Band in each Circuit be annually returned to the Conference by the Superintendants.

Q. 17. What can be done to diminish the enormous expenses of Letters, received during the sittings of our Conferences?

A. Let no Letters on Public Business, whether from Quarterly Meetings, Trustees, Stewards, or any other person, whether addressed to the President, to the Representatives of Districts, or to any other Preacher, be attended to by the Conference, unless the Postage be previously paid.

Q. 18. How may we secure a greater degree of accuracy in our printed Minutes and Accompts?

A. Let the Proof-Sheets of all the Annual Accompts be sent to the Clerks, to whose departments they respectively belong; and let the Proof-Sheets of all the other parts of the Minutes be sent to the Secretary and to the Sub-Secretary; before the said Accompts and Minutes be finally struck off.

Q. 19. What directions are necessary respecting our Schools at Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove?

A. 1. The Annual Public Collection shall be made as usual in the month of October; but, previously to that Collection, the Preachers shall apply in private to such of our Members and Friends, as are likely to become Annual Subscribers, and the names of such Subscribers shall be published.

2. If any boy be removed from one School to the other, he shall bring a written Character from the Governor of the School which he leaves.

3. All Letters sent to the Governors, or to the boys, by the Preachers, shall be post-paid.

4. There shall be no General Vacation in future, at either of the Schools; but every Preacher is allowed to have his son at home for one month in the year, whenever it is most convenient to himself.

N. B. 1. The Committee for Kingswood School, for the ensuing year, are, Joseph Entwisle, John Pipe, John Davies, sen. Jeremiah Brettell, Robert Johnson, (Treasurer,) Thomas Stanley, John Ogilvie, James Etchells, Miles Martindale, and Thomas Roberts.

2. The Committee for Woodhouse-Grove, for the ensuing year, are, James Wood, (Treasurer,) Charles Atmore, Richard Reece, (Secretary,) John Nelson, George Morley, Jabez Bunting, Thos. Bartholomew, William Bramwell, Thomas Fletcher, William Radcliffe, James Buckley, John Braithwaite, and Rich. Waddy; with Messrs. Fawcett, of Bradford; B. Sadler, of Leeds; John Ashworth, of Halifax; Holdsworth, of Wakefield; Haley, of Bramley; and Child, of Greengates.

Miscellaneous Orders and Resolutions of the Conference.

1. It is resolved, that no part of the Missionary Collection shall, from this time, be applied, either to defray the expense of the rents of the Houses in which our Missionaries preach, or to supply the deficiencies of Interest of any Monies, due upon the Chapels in which they officiate.

2. The Missionary Committee in London have authority to inquire for a suitable Preacher to succeed Brother Gill, in the Mission at Gibraltar, and to send him out in May or June, 1814.

3. It is agreed, that, after the Preachers, who have completed the period of their probation, shall have passed through the usual private and public examinations, they shall be received into Full Connexion by the President of the Conference for the time being, as has been customary. And the President of the preceding Conference shall then address to them, in the presence of the Congregation, an appropriate Charge. This method shall be continued annually.

4. The "Rules and Regulations of the Methodist Preachers' Annuitant Society," shall be printed in Octavo, and a Copy sent to every Member, for which he is to pay One Shilling.

5. The Account of all the Receipts and Disbursements of the Methodist Preachers' Auxiliary Fund shall, after this year, be published, not in the Minutes, but separately, in the octavo size, and a copy sent to every Subscriber of Half-a-Guinea, and upwards. The Superintendants are to bring with them to the Conference, for that purpose, an accurate list of the Subscribers in their respective Circuits, alphabetically arranged, and to deliver it, with their monies, to the Clerk of the said Fund.

Q. 20. When and where shall our next Conference be held?

A. At Bristol, on the last Monday in July, 1814.

Signed on behalf, and by order of the Conference,

2. All Letters written to the President, in the course of the year, must be addressed to The Rev. Walter Griffith, Methodist Chapel, Rochester, and must be sent post-paid.

ADDRESSES.

The ADDRESS of the IRISH CONFERENCE to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.Fathers and Brethren, beloved in the Lord,

IT affords us the most sincere pleasure to cultivate with you the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace and love; and by our annual communications to reciprocate those pledges of the heart which declare, that we are one body in him—"who is the Head over all." In these "lasting bonds," we have from the beginning been preserved, and do now assure you, that never were we more affectionately disposed to perpetuate that "love which is the bond of perfectness." The unity of the members of Christ's Church is its glory, and its strength; "how good and how pleasant a thing it is for Brethren to dwell together in unity"—but much more so—for the ministers of Christ to abide in the fellowship of one common system of uncorrupted doctrine, and of a discipline which is according to godliness.

We felt your joy, and do unfeignedly congratulate you on the success of the glorious Gospel of God our Saviour amongst you; and we devoutly hope, that the kingdom of Messiah will be established over all the earth: and that of the increase of his government and peace, there will be no end. We deplore with deep humility that our enlargement is not proportionate to yours—and that the fruit has not been equal to the labour bestowed on this barren land. To trace the causes of our unsuccessfulness—to ascertain the hindrances which obstruct the good work among us—a Special Committee was appointed; and, we trust, the effects of the Report of that Committee, will have a lasting and gracious influence upon our future exertions. The directions given respecting the necessary ministerial qualifications—the more faithful and strict application of our Rules of Discipline—but above all, respecting that habitual and conscious sense of the presence of indwelling God, necessary to render all preaching effectual to salvation—were accompanied with such overwhelming manifestations of divine light, consolation, and power—as we must say, we never before experienced in our Conference. In other countries, the prospect opens and brightens—and with joy we contemplate the future glory of the East—where first the Sun of Righteousness arose with healing under his wings. The hope of missionary success in those long benighted lands, is to us, as well as to all the Lord's people, a matter of holy exultation; and, we rejoice to contribute in our small measure to the means of its establishment.

These are momentous and eventful times—and while the judgments of the Lord are abroad in the earth, we trust, the nations will learn righteousness. How favoured are these lands in times of war and devastation—like some grand pillar which stands unshaken amidst surrounding ruins!--Surely such providential and special protection, calls for no small returns of humble gratitude and sincere devotion !

As a people, we rejoice in the security of our religious privileges—and while we feel thankful for that kind legislative interference which has so recently patronized our rights, we trust, that our unequivocal attachment to our government, and the constitution of the realm—with our steady adherence to our first principles—will attest, that the Methodist Society is not unworthy of the political confidence reposed in them.

Never did we feel more determined to enter on our great work in the spirit of the disciples of the blessed Jesus—than this hour ; and never were we more humbly conscious that “ our sufficiency is of God.” God has called us to witness and to preach a spiritual Gospel, and we feel, that to discharge this great duty we must be “endued with power from on high”—for it is God “that worketh in us both to will and to do of his own good pleasure.”

We need hardly assure you, that we received the appointment of our dearly beloved Brother and President, Dr. Coke, with the best affections of our hearts, and that his visit has been profitable and comforting to our souls. As to the appointment of our President for the next year, we do not hesitate to say, that the man of our choice would be our highly venerated Brother and countryman, Dr. Clarke—and this we say, not from national partiality, but from a persuasion, that his future visit would not be less grateful and edifying than the former ; and we shall consider his appointment as a further testimony of your regards for the interests of Ireland: and we do unanimously request, that Dr. Clarke would (if practicable) gratify the South of Ireland with a visit.

We send to you again, as our Representative, our much loved and confidential Brother, Matthew Tobias: and we are certain, that the very best social and religious effects will result from our rightly understanding each other's interests ; and our mutual endeavours to “serve one another in love.” May the presence of the Lord overshadow you, may the High and Holy One dwell in the midst of you—and bless you with all grace and peace—by our Lord Jesus Christ.

Signed on behalf, and by order of the Conference,

ROBERT BANKS, Secretary.

The ADDRESS of the BRITISH CONFERENCE to the IRISH
CONFERENCE.

Beloved Brethren,

We have received your affectionate Address by the hands of our esteemed Brother, Matthew Tobias; and we sincerely rejoice to hear that "The Lord of Hosts is with you," and that "The God of Jacob is your refuge." The expressions of your regard for us, afford us real pleasure; and we can with truth affirm, that we also feel an increasing regard for you, and rejoice, with great joy, in every event which tends to promote your happiness, usefulness, and respectability. We hope it will always appear that we are one in Him, who has called us to be fellow-labourers in his vineyard; united in judgment, affection, and design, having in view, in all our undertakings, the glory of God and the good of men. May our Divine Redeemer keep us one, himself being the living centre of our happy and everlasting union.

In the course of the year which is past, several of our venerable Fathers have been called to their high reward; and a few of our younger Brethren, of promising talents, have been removed out of the vineyard to an early recompense. These are loud calls to us who are left behind, to "work the works of him that sent" us "while it is day; for the night cometh when no man can work." But the Lord has raised up many hopeful young men, to fill the places of those whom he has called home, thereby manifesting his continued care over the church, which is his body.

The solicitude evinced in your Address, for the prosperity of pure religion, is a proof that your hearts are right with God. The Christian shepherd loves the flock, forms plans to promote its welfare, and rejoices in continual accessions to the fold. This joy will be yours. Your recent plans to promote the work of God, and to spread the savour of divine knowledge, will, we trust, be succeeded by his blessing. We also are forming similar plans, and are confident that our exalted Saviour will direct us by his wisdom, and aid us by his power. In his great name let us begin, continue, and end all our works. We are fully convinced, that the work of grace is both begun and carried on by the agency of his Holy Spirit, yet, nevertheless, means must be used on our part to accomplish the desired end.

In our temporal affairs we have felt, and do still feel, the pressure of the times, but though we are involved in pecuniary embarrassments, we hope all will be well, as we have always hitherto found our pious and affectionate people ready to help us to the utmost of their power. The itinerant plan is very expensive; but the advantages arising from it, far exceed the value of gold and silver. And, while we are zealously engaged in this great work, with a single eye, “let us hope that the Lord will provide.” We trust in his promise, knowing he can abundantly supply all our wants; for “The earth is the Lord’s, and the fulness thereof.”

While our number has increased this year, the Lord has deepened and widened his work in the hearts of his people. Since our last annual Conference, we have added upwards of Nine Thousand to the number of our Societies, many of whom are truly converted to God, and the rest, we hope, are earnestly seeking a saving interest in the Lord Jesus Christ. The salvation of one soul is worth more than a world, and affords to ministers of the Gospel, a joy which cannot be expressed by words. How great then is our joy in beholding the conversion of thousands! and we still hope to see an enlargement of the Redeemer’s kingdom.

On the subject of missions, we have abundant cause to bless God; for both our home and foreign missions have been remarkably blessed by him. And we add, with pleasure, that we have a prospect of sending the Word of Life to the East. Our beloved Brother, Dr. Coke, burning with zeal for God, is about to visit that country, accompanied by seven missionaries; so that we hope pure christianity, as taught by us from the beginning, will soon extend its influence through those populous and extensive regions. God has made us instruments of great good both in Europe and America; and, we sincerely pray, that Asia and Africa may fully “know the joyful sound,” and turn to him.—May the happy æra soon commence, when “The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.”

We heartily bless God for a continuation of our religious privileges. In this respect, we “sit under our own vine and fig-tree, no man making us afraid.” Thus favoured, we cannot but feel a strong attachment to our civil constitution, and a confirmed regard for our Rulers, who have, upon all occasions, discovered a liberal spirit towards us as a people. We are, therefore, still resolved to recommend, both by word and deed, the duty of fearing God and honouring the king.

Our Conference has been a season of great peace and love; and we are, if possible, more closely united in brotherly affection than we ever were. We have no painful disputes; no jarring interests; our hearts are one; and our designs and purposes are one.

Impressed with the great importance of entire devotedness to God, we are determined to consecrate ourselves to him, body, soul, and spirit. We are fully persuaded, that there can in general be no prosperity in the sacred office, unless the persons employed therein, be pure both in heart and life.

In compliance with your request, and as a token of our love to you, we have appointed our highly respected Brother, Dr. Adam Clarke, to preside at your next Conference; and we hope the divine blessing will rest both upon him and you. We conclude by praying, that the presence of the glorified Head of the Church may remain with you, and that your fruit may abound yet more and more to his praise and glory. Amen.

ADDRESS from the CONFERENCE to the TRUSTEES of the CHAPELS in the METHODIST CONNEXION.

Dear Friends and Brethren,

Many of you feel yourselves to be highly honoured by being made, in your official capacity, pillars in the Temple of God. The Conference have been long and deeply sensible of your importance and value. And it has been, in a great measure, from a desire to serve and accommodate the numerous Chapels, built by our Friends, for which you are put in Trust, that we have, especially for some of the last years, called out and employed so many additional Preachers. This has, however, very much contributed to bring us into great and unexampled difficulties in temporal matters. After painfully feeling our circumstances, as a Connexion, and looking this way and that for help, our attention has been directed to you. The Deficiencies, ordinary and extraordinary, including the Debt of the last year, exceed the Yearly Subscription and the Profits of the Book-Room, about Five Thousand Pounds. After mature consideration, it has appeared to us to be just and proper to make friendly and earnest application to you, and to request your assistance in this time of difficulty and distress. The Conference have done much, at different periods and in different ways, to serve and please the Trustees. Many of you will be glad of an opportunity of manifesting your gratitude. You are our Brethren and Fellow-Helpers in the Gospel; and as such we entreat you to come forward in the hour of need, and to make a christian and brotherly offering, for the relief of the Connexion, of such a sum of Money, arising from the Income of the Seats of your respective Chapels, as you may think proper. Permit us to remark, that this would only be helping the Connexion by a little of the produce of our own labour. It is by the Preaching of the blessed Gospel in the Chapels, that the Income of the Seat-Rents is created; and therefore, such a portion of that Income as can be spared, ought, in justice, to be brought forward, in aid of the weekly and quarterly Contributions of our Societies, towards the support of the Christian ministry.

We have confidence in you, that you will seriously consider this application; and that the assistance, which you will voluntarily and promptly afford, will be such as effectually to deliver the Methodist Connexion from the greatest pecuniary embarrassment which it ever felt, and enable the Messengers of Christ to go on their way rejoicing.

Signed on behalf, and by order of the Conference,

WALTER GRIFFITH, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

A LETTER from the CONFERENCE to the STEWARDS of the METHODISTS CIRCUITS and SOCIETIES.

Very dear Brethren,

THE present pecuniary embarrassments of our Connexion render an Address to you necessary. The Deficiencies, ordinary and extraordinary, including the Debt of the last year, exceed the Yearly Subscription, and the Profits of the Book Room, about Five Thousand Pounds. These embarrassments are likely to be annual and accumulative, unless our general expenses be diminished, and our general Income increased. The Conference has done something in both these ways; and now applies to the Stewards for their assistance, in order to complete its plans. The Stewards are therefore earnestly entreated,

1. To make such exertions, in conjunction with the Leaders, as will raise in their respective Circuits, at least the sums required by our old-established Rules; namely, on the average, one penny per week, to be paid in the Classes, and one shilling per quarter to be paid when the Tickets are renewed, for each member:
2. To provide as much as possible for additional married Preachers, where single Preachers are now stationed. Imperious necessity has compelled the Conference to adopt, as a general principle, the following Rule, "That in future, married Preachers shall be appointed to every Circuit in proportion to the number of members." And it appears on a fair calculation that on this principle, one married Preacher ought to be sent, where there are 450 members,—two where there are 900,—three where there are 1350, and so on. Our Friends are therefore entreated, where it is not already the case, to act on this principle, by making preparation against the next Conference for married instead of single Preachers.

3. To take upon themselves, as far as possible, all the expenses of their respective Circuits, and to send to the District Meetings, or Conference, as few demands as may be, either for ordinaries or extraordinaries, and, if practicable, no demands at all.

The Conference is fully sensible, that in some of the Circuits, every thing is already done, which can be reasonably expected; and there are a few Circuits, which, considering their numbers, exert themselves in a manner eminently praise-worthy. Their local circumstances have appeared to require a greater number of Travelling Preachers, than are usually sent to Circuits so small in other parts of the kingdom. And feeling the peculiarity of their situation, they have proportionably increased their weekly and quarterly Subscriptions, so as not merely to comply with our Rules, but very far to exceed what those Rules require. This conduct is just and laudable. But there are other Circuits which are very deficient in their Contributions, and which consequently remain, from year to year, a burden upon our general Funds. If this evil cannot be remedied in some considerable degree, the Conference will be under the painful necessity of declining to send to such Circuits any more Preachers, whether married or single, than they can undertake to support.

As one source of our embarrassments appears to be the multiplication of single Preachers in Circuits, which ought to make provision for families, the Conference has agreed, that no additional single Preacher be sent in future to any Circuit, unless such Circuit engages to support an additional married Preacher instead of the single Preacher so allowed, at the end of four years at farthest.

And now, dear Brethren, as we consider that your hearts are much engaged in the good work of God, and you know that his cause cannot be supported without pecuniary aid, we do earnestly entreat you to employ your utmost energies, in raising the necessary supplies. We have nothing in view in soliciting your help, but the glory of God; and we are fully satisfied that your assistance in these matters will contribute to that end.

Signed in behalf, and by order of the Conference,

WALTER GRIFFITH, President.

THOMAS COKE, Secretary.

PREFACE.

A CONSIDERABLE time has elapsed, since I formed the design of publishing an Index to the Minutes of the Methodist Conferences, printed in three volumes octavo. Persuaded that such a work would be found useful, to those who are in the habit of consulting these authentic records of Methodism, I announced my intention by an advertisement in 1815. As the detail of causes which have retarded the publication, could excite no particular interest in the public mind, it will form no part of this preface. The delay, if unaccompanied by any other advantage, has given me the opportunity of including in my arrangement, the Minutes of the Conference of 1816.

To those who properly appreciate these volumes, it is matter of sincere regret, that there is a chasm of sixteen years, viz. from 1749, to 1765 ; during which interval, it seems, the Minutes were not printed.

Aware, that the utility of this work must depend upon the manner of its execution, I have endeavoured, by no inconsiderable labour, to render it deserving the approbation of my greatly beloved Brethren in the Ministry ; and of all others who love the genuine doctrines and discipline of Methodism. How far I have succeeded in this well-meant attempt, becomes not me to determine.

To accommodate the diversified views of different readers, the same Minute is sometimes referred to by two, or more, of the most important words, that could be selected for the purpose of reference. As in many instances, I have given so much of the minute, as to supersede the necessity of any reference; I trust this compilation will, partially at least, answer the end of a Common-place Book.

With the view of rendering the work more complete, I have added an Appendix, containing a copious table of references to the Minutes of the three Conferences, which have been held since the publication of the three volumes, in 1813. In this part of the work, I have distinguished the different articles by citing the years, in which the Conferences were held.

The reader will observe, that some of the Minutes here referred to, are now repealed; either virtually or formally. The reference to these obsolete rules, is justified by their late re-publication. It became a question, indeed, 'whether it might not be advisable, to distinguish them, by affixing the word, repealed. I was, however, determined against the adoption of this measure, first, because the same Minute is sometimes referred to several times, by its different members, and therefore the affixed word, would have occurred so often, as to offend the eye. And, secondly, I found it difficult to determine, in some cases, which were repealed, and which still had the force of law. In cases admitting of so much doubt, and involving in their decisions, results of great interest, I felt unwilling to decide.

Should the work furnish to the reader, a facility of turning to any subject he may wish to find, my labour will not have been in vain.

SAMUEL TAYLOR.
